According to the McKinney-Vento Law, children and youth experiencing homelessness have the right to:

- Continue in their school of origin if that is the parent's or youth's choice and is feasible.
- Enroll in school immediately even if missing records and documents required for enrollment.
- Receive transportation to and from the school of origin
- When a dispute arises under the McKinney-Vento Act, the law requires the following minimum procedures: The child or youth "shall be immediately admitted to the school in which enrollment is sought, pending resolution of the dispute" [42 U.S.C. § 11432(g)(3)(E)(i)].
