Remember, you can always ask questions! Don't be shy- I don't bite, I swear. Don't be rude and understand art does take awhile for me. For finished pieces at least it could take me up to 5-6+ hours. I will always give dates. Regardless, I would mostly come saying I might get it done before the due date, so that's fun right? Do understand, once I receive payment and you change your mind even after I started on the work. I won't be doing refunds. Given my situation. I'm deeply sorry if that's a downfall. If we talk it out I can draw you whatever it is, keeping it in the price range you paid for. I will always update you. On sketches, line art and coloring. I like to make sure you know I didn't forget and I'm doing my job!
