

There's more to Vancouver than just stunning landscapes, like the many singles in the city you can meet. Although you may want to meet someone in person, online dating is becoming increasingly more popular, especially after the pandemic as you can vet people before meeting them. The only challenge you may face is finding the best Vancouver dating apps, but we're here to help.

The team at BeyondAges tries all the dating apps on the market so you don't have to. After all our research, we've narrowed down our choices to five of the best dating apps in Vancouver. Take a look at why we love each one to help you choose one that suits what you're looking for in a partner.

The 5 best dating sites in Vancouver right now

There are hundreds of general and niche dating apps on the market, so choosing the best one for you depends on what you're looking for in a partner. Do you want someone with the same culture or background as you? Try a niche app. Are you ready to settle down? Try an app targeted at long-term relationships. Whatever you're looking for, there's a dating app available that can help you find it.

To appeal to our massive audience in Vancouver, we stuck to five general dating apps, but they all have great filters you can use to narrow down your search. Let's jump into the reviews!

#1 - eHarmony (Android, iOS) is one of the best dating apps in Vancouver for singles looking for serious relationships

Even if you've never tried online dating, you've likely heard of eHarmony before as it's been around since 2000. Despite its age, eHarmony is still popular, especially among people who are looking for something serious. It's one of the best places to find a long-term relationship because of the site's detailed matching algorithm.

When you sign up, you answer questions about your interests, lifestyle, and preferences in a partner. The site then uses your answers to offer match recommendations based on compatibility. This helps you save plenty of time and allows you to meet someone you actually have something in common with.

Why we love eHarmony

- Massive userbase in Vancouver
- Detailed matching algorithm saves you time
- 70% of users find their spouse within a year on eHarmony

What we don't like about it

- The sign-up process is long
- Not as popular among young people in their 20s

#2 - Match (Android, iOS) is the oldest dating site on the market

Match is actually the oldest dating site on the market as it's been around since 1995. Despite its age, the site has remained relevant to this day, especially in Vancouver. Match stays relevant by regularly adding new features to keep things interesting. We love this dating site because of how detailed profiles can be.

When you sign up, you can upload up to 26 pictures, write a bio up to 4,000 characters long, and complete 10 sections describing your views, lifestyle, and beliefs. This is a great way to get to know your matches so you can find common ground and send a unique pickup line. As there are still over 21.5 million people on the site, you shouldn't struggle with finding your perfect match.

Why Match is still popular today

- Super detailed profiles
- Tons of free features
- Plenty of users in Vancouver

What we don't like about it

- Not as popular among younger people (ages 18 to 25)
- Some profiles may include too much detail

#3 - AFF (Web) is one of the best dating sites in Vancouver for finding friends with benefits

AFF is the largest dating site in the world for casual flings. So if you just want to have a little no-strings-attached fun, this may be the place for you. AFF has plenty of fun features, like adult chatrooms, live shows, and erotic stories that make online dating much more interesting. The site is popular among a more mature audience, making it a great alternative to young hookup apps like Tinder.

Why AFF is the most popular hookup site

- Everyone on the app is looking for the same thing
- Fun adult features
- Over 60 million users on AFF around the world

What we don't like about it

- Limited search filters
- The app is hard to download and use

[su_service title="You Can Try AFF Free!" icon="icon: intersex" icon_color="#ed101f" size="44"]If you're just looking for more short-term fun you need to try out AFF. We've spent months and months testing out the alternatives (more than 100 other sites) and haven't found anything that gives most guys more options and better results. Give it a shot![/su_service]

#4 - Hinge (Android, iOS) helps you form genuine connections

Hinge is one of the most unique dating apps on the market as it almost feels like a social media platform. To use Hinge, you upload six pictures and answer three conversation prompts. Then to match with someone, you must like or comment on a specific picture or prompt. This makes online dating more interactive and fun. It also helps you slow down and actually look through people's profiles so you can get to know them.

Why Hinge is awesome

- Large userbase of young people
- Free features, like seeing who liked you
- Easy to find a conversation starter

What we don't like about it

- Limited likes per day using the free version
- Daily matches aren't really based on compatibility

#5 - Tinder (Android, iOS) is one of the most popular dating apps in the world

Although Tinder isn't the oldest dating app on the market, it's still one of the most popular. While it's not targeted specifically at people who want to hook up, it's what most people are on the app for, as Tinder is appearance based.

To use the app, you look through a few pictures, read a short bio, then swipe right if you like them or left if you want to skip the profile. Tinder is so easy to use, which is why most people use it to find hookups, but there are still people on there looking for something more serious. As it's free and has tons of users in Vancouver, we think it's worth a shot.

Why Tinder is so fun

- Free to use with the option to pay for more features
- 75 million users on Tinder around the world
- Change your location to meet people in different cities or countries

What we don't like about it

- Profiles are limited
- Seems to work the best for hot singles

The Best Hookup Sites in Vancouver

If you just want to have a little fun online, try one of these Vancouver hookup sites to find like-minded singles:

You can never go wrong with AFF

AFF is one of the best casual dating sites in Vancouver, so it deserved a second mention. It's clearly marketed as a place to find hookups, so you don't need to worry about having any awkward conversations about your expectations in a partner, just have a little fun instead. You can match with people based on proximity, so you won't even need to go far for a fling.

Cast your line on Plenty of Fish

Plenty of Fish isn't targeted specifically at people who are looking for something casual, but it's what most people use the app for nowadays. With its video chat feature, you can see what your matches really look like before deciding to meet up with them. Plenty of Fish is also free, so you won't need to invest much into your search. There are over 100 million users on the app worldwide, so there really is plenty of fish in the sea.

The Best Dating Sites in Vancouver for relationships

If you're after something a little more serious, here are two of the best Vancouver dating apps for long-term relationships:

eHarmony is one of the best dating sites in Vancouver

eHarmony is so good we had to mention it twice! It's the perfect place for people to find love and get married. It's actually helped over 600,000 couples do just that. While the rigorous sign-up process and paid membership may put some people off, we definitely think it's worth it. Consider it an investment into your future as you're sure to find love on eHarmony.

Zoosk is the best place for younger singles looking for love

Many dating apps targeted at younger people focus on casual flings, but not Zoosk. It's an alternative to these hookup apps as it's targeted at people in their 20s who want something serious. As there are over 27 million users on Zoosk, you shouldn't struggle to find your perfect match.

The best free dating sites in Vancouver

As Vancouver is one of the most expensive cities in Canada, you may be on a budget that doesn't include paying for a dating membership. If that's the case, you can use a free app instead of paying for a membership, but it's important to note that paid dating apps always offer better results. As long as you're okay with that, take advantage of a free trial or app to dip your toes into online dating.

Here are three of the best free dating sites in Vancouver:

- Bumble
- OkCupid
- Hinge

If you've tried some of these apps and not had any success, don't let that discourage you. You just haven't found the right app for you yet. Test out a couple of different ones to find features and potential matches you like. Canada has some of the nicest people in the world, you're sure to find your perfect match in Vancouver soon.
