330EL - Texas, USA

San Bernard National Wildlife Refuge, Texas, USA

The San Bernard National Wildlife Refuge is a 45,730-acre (185.1 km2) wildlife conservation area along the coast of Texas (USA), south of the towns of Sweeny and Brazoria, Texas. It encloses a bay behind a barrier island at the Gulf of Mexico. The refuge is located in southern Brazoria and eastern Matagorda counties.

Coordinates 28°52′00″N 95°32′00″W

Read the details >>

