

Privacy Policy by Cut To Win: Slicing Puzzles

INTRODUCTION AND YOUR AGREEMENT TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

miraclenatureco and its affiliates are dedicated to protecting the privacy rights of our users («users» or «you»). This Privacy Policy (the «Policy») describes the ways we collect, store, use, and manage the information, including personal information, that you provide or we collect in connection with our website at gamedevsource.com (the «Site») or any company game provided on a mobile platform (for example, Android) (collectively, the «Service»). Personal information can include, for example, an individual's first and last name, address, telephone number, e-mail address or credit card number. Please note that the scope of this Privacy Policy is limited to information collected or received by miraclenatureco through your use of the Service. Company is not responsible for the actions of third party people or companies, the content of their sites, the use of information you provide to them, or any products or services they may offer. Any link to those sites does not constitute our sponsorship of, or affiliation with, those people or companies.

BY INSTALLING, USING OR OTHERWISE ACCESSING THE SERVICE, YOU AGREE TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY, PLEASE DO NOT INSTALL, USE OR OTHERWISE ACCESS THE SERVICE. We may update this Policy from time to time. You are responsible for periodically reading this Policy. We will post all changes to this Policy on this page and the modified policy will specify its effective date.

INFORMATION COLLECTED AND USED

Our primary objective in collecting your information is to provide and enhance the Service and to enable you to easily navigate and enjoy the Service. For example, miraclenatureco may use your information to create your account, improve our Service, provide customer support, resolve disputes, connect users, create reports for internal use and notify you of updates to the game (or of other/new games) and special promotions.

Other Platforms

When you use any of the company games or applications, we automatically collect and record certain information such as your unique device ID, hardware type, the version of your operating system («OS»), your in-game activity, and your location (based on your Internet Protocol («IP») address). This information is useful to us for troubleshooting and helps us understand usage trends. Company uses country information to customize the user experience and promotions, enforce our terms of service, and make recommendations about user connections. We may also give users the opportunity to opt-in to location-based services, which rely upon a device's GPS coordinates. You may opt-out of these location services via the settings on your device. A user's location may be used to suggest friends with whom they might want to connect, analyze usage trends or target certain promotions.

Platforms/Third-Party Marketplaces

In the course of providing our Service on third party platforms/marketplaces, such as Apple's App Store, the platforms/marketplaces may collect information about you or receive information from us in order for the platforms/marketplaces to provide or analyze their services. Please note that these platforms/marketplaces were developed and administered by people or companies not affiliated with or controlled by miraclenatureco and that company is not responsible for the actions of those people or companies. You should carefully review the terms of service and privacy policies of the platforms/third-party marketplaces that you use to access our Service. When you use or connect to a company mobile app by or through a Third Party Platform, such as Facebook or other social networking site, you allow us to access and/or collect certain information from your Third Party Platform profile/account (such as your Facebook account) or via any cookies placed on your device by such Third Party Platform as permitted by the terms of the agreement and your privacy settings with the Third Party Platform. We will share such information with the Third Party Platform for their use as permitted by the terms of the agreement and your privacy setting with the Third Party Platform.

Facebook Connect

If you sign into the Service with Facebook Connect we will collect information that is visible via your Facebook account such as: (1) your first and last name, (2) Facebook ID, (3) Profile Picture/URL, and (4) list of Facebook friends. Your name will be primarily used for user registration and in social features, which may include friend-to-friend interaction, chat or messaging functionality, public leaderboards, head-to-head competition and other similar features.

In-Game Dialog Boxes

When you register to play our games through the Service, we may ask whether you'd like to provide us with certain pieces of information, which could include: your email, username, phone number, gender, birthdate, home address, and address book. We will do this through in-game dialog boxes, which you may choose to skip. If you provide your email address in connection with a game, the email address will be retained by miraclenatureco and we may use that email address to contact you about your gaming experience with company games and notify you about company news and promotions. Your username may be used for social features in our games (e.g., presenting someone's name on a message board). Your phone number may be used to help connect you with other users via our social networking system and for SMS notifications. Your gender and birthdate may be used to analyze user trends and target certain promotions. Your home address will be used if we have merchandise or other physical promotional materials we want to send to you. We may also request access to your address book to connect you to other players in the game. If we begin offering our Service on a platform without an in-app purchase billing system, we may need to collect credit card and billing information.

Email Newsletter

You may elect to sign up for the company email newsletter, which will contain information and advertisements about our products. We may also contact you with targeted email promotions.

Website

When you visit our Site, your computer's operating system, Internet Protocol (IP) address, access times, browser type and language and referring Web site addresses may be logged automatically. We may also collect information about your usage and activity, such as number of clicks, pages viewed and the order of those pages, the amount of time spent on particular pages, and the date and time of this activity. We may use this information to monitor and analyze use of the Service.

Other Collection

We may also acquire information from you through (1) your access and participation in message boards on the Service, (2) your email of a question to our customer support, (3) your purchase of a virtual product of any type, (4) your participation in surveys regarding the Service or (5) your participation in a sweepstakes or contest through the Service.

Customer Service

We may collect your email address when you contact our customer service group and we may use that email address to contact you about your gaming experience with company games and notify you about company news and promotions.

Push Notifications

We may occasionally send you push notifications through our mobile applications to send you game updates, high scores and other service related notifications that may be of importance to you. You may at any time opt-out from receiving these types of communications by turning them off at the device level through your settings.

Game Data Collection

Whenever you play our games, we collect data about all of your interactions with the game and with the other players inside the game via server log files. This information may be associated with your player ID, IP address or device ID for the purpose of providing you our Services and improving them. This data is stored within Amazon Web Services.

Mobile Analytics

We use mobile analytics software to allow us to better understand the functionality of our Mobile Software on your device. This software may record information such as how often you use the application, the events that occur within the application, aggregated usage, performance data, and where the application was downloaded from. We do not link the information we store within the analytics software to any personal information you submit within the mobile application.

Ad Networks

We may feature advertising within our Service. The advertisers may collect and use information about you, such as your Service session activity, device identifier, MAC address, IMEI, geo-location information and IP address. They may use this information to provide advertisements of interest to you. In addition, you may see our games advertised in other services. After clicking on one of these advertisements and installing our game, you will become a user of our Service. In order to verify the installs, a device identifier may be shared with the advertiser.

How We Use Information

We use information collected through our Service for purposes described in this Policy or disclosed to you in connection with our Service. For example, we may use your information to: create game accounts and allow users to play our games; identify and suggest connections with other company users; operate and improve our Service; understand you and your preferences to enhance your experience and enjoyment using our Service; respond to your comments and questions and provide customer service; provide and deliver products and services you request; send you related information, including confirmations, invoices, technical notices, updates, security alerts, and support and administrative messages; communicate with you about promotions, rewards, upcoming events, and other news about products and services offered by company and our selected partners; enable you to communicate with other users; link or combine it with other information we get from third parties, to help understand your preferences and provide you with better services.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Company does not share your personal information except as approved by you or as described below: With your consent, for example, when you agree to our sharing your information with other third parties for their own marketing purposes subject to their separate privacy policies. miraclenatureco may engage other companies and individuals to perform services on our behalf. Examples of these services include sending e-mails to you and analyzing data. While these agents and service providers may have access to your personal information in connection with the performance of services for miraclenatureco, they may not use such information for any purpose other than providing such services to us. We may release your information as permitted by law or when we believe that release is appropriate to comply with the law; enforce or apply our rights; or protect the rights, property, or safety of us or our users, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection. Company may share your information in connection with any merger, sale of our assets, or a financing or acquisition of all or a portion of our business to another company. We may share aggregate and anonymous information about you with advertisers, publishers, business partners, sponsors, and other third parties.

When you are using our a mobile application that incorporates our Services, we may also automatically record your Google Advertising ID or your Advertising Identifier together with the Google Advertising ID – "Mobile Advertising IDs"), for advertising or analytics purposes. The Google Advertising ID is an anonymous identifier, provided by Google Play services. If your device has an Advertising ID, we may collect and use it for advertising and user analytics purposes. If your device does not have Advertising ID, we may use other persistent identifiers. The information collected may be also stored on your device.

CHANGING OR DELETING YOUR INFORMATION

You may contact us regarding any questions or comments regarding this Privacy Policy by visiting Our Contact Page. If you completely delete all of your information, your account may become deactivated. You may opt-out of receiving promotional emails from us by following the instructions in those emails. If you opt-out, we may still send you non-promotional emails, such as emails about your accounts or our ongoing business relations. Under California law, California Residents who have an established business relationship with us may choose to opt out of the disclosure of personal information about them to third parties for such third parties' direct marketing purposes. As detailed above, our policy is not to disclose personal information collected online to a third party for direct marketing purposes without your approval. If you choose to opt-out at any time after granting approval, please contact us at Our Contact Page

SECURITY

Company has put in place industry standard technical and organizational measures designed to secure your information from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, alteration or disclosure. However, we cannot guarantee that unauthorized third parties will never be able to overcome those measures or use your personal information for improper purposes. Also please note that email and messaging systems are not considered secure, so we discourage you from sending us personal information through these mediums.

INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER

We may transfer information that we collect about you to affiliated entities, or to other third parties across borders and from your country or jurisdiction to other countries or jurisdictions around the world. If you are located in the European Union or other regions with laws governing data collection and use that may differ from U.S. law, please note that you are transferring information, including personal information, to a country and jurisdiction that does not have the same data protection laws as your jurisdiction, and you consent to the transfer of information to the U.S. and the use and disclosure of information about you, including personal information, as described in this Policy.
