IMPAIRED DRIVING DEFENSE LAWYER IN LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

<http://www.duilawyer-los-angeles.com>

WHAT TO DO IN CASE YOU ARE FACING IMPAIRED DRIVING CHARGES IN LOS ANGELES

For first-time offenders, being arrested for impaired driving charges is a frightening experience. You might be subjected to the maximum punishment for your impaired driving charges and you might lose your case at trial if you fail to act immediately.

When one is in such a situation, it is always advisable to contact an experienced DUI lawyer. Time is of the essence in building a good defense for your case. Our team of investigators gather evidence first-hand in order to evaluate whether the rights of the accused have been abided by or not. Our defense is based on utilizing this evidence at trial as well as cross-examining the prosecution's witnesses.

THE LAWS CONSTITUTING IMPAIRED DRIVING CHARGES IN LOS ANGELES, CA

As per the various sub-sections of California Vehicle Code Section 23152 VC, it is illegal to drive while under the influence of alcohol, drugs or a combination of alcohol and drugs. The drivers who commit DUI offenses have to face a lot of severe penalties and punishments that can be life altering. Apart from this, they can face criminal penalties in court as well as an administrative driver's license suspension. It is important to understand what impaired driving includes and what type of conduct is considered a violation of California's DUI laws.

(a) The law in California does not prohibit all drivers who have consumed alcohol from driving a motor vehicle. The legal BAC limit in California is 0.08 percent. Since this is not a substantial amount of alcohol and many people may feel that they are able to drive even when they are at or above the 0.08% limit. If a driver is found with a BAC which is 0.08 percent or more than that, he or she can be charged with driving with a BAC of 0.08 percent or higher in violation of California Vehicle Code Section 23152(b) VC.; or

(b) The drivers who are found with a BAC lower than the approved limit can still be charged with driving under the influence of alcohol in violation of California Vehicle Code Section 23152(a) VC. It is however necessary for the prosecutor to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol at the time of driving. Drivers who are 21 or under or those who are already on DUI probation cannot drive with any measurable amount of alcohol in their system and these drivers can be arrested or cited even if they have a BAC of 0.01 percent or higher.

An experienced impaired driving attorney in Los Angeles, CA will find all the necessary information to defend you against impaired driving charges. All you need to do is contact Los Angeles DUI Lawyer today.
