JAMES STUART Fireman

James, 26, is a fireman. He comes from Scotland, but now he lives in Sussex, England. He works at a small fire station near Brighton. James drives the fire engines. He works 10 days a month. He's at work for 24 hours, and then he has 48 hours off. It's a difficult job, but he likes it.

He's married, with two children, and on his free days he takes Lara (6) to school and enjoys playing with Max (4). He also goes to the gym, and he plays snooker.

MAGGIE HOWELL Zoologist

Maggie, 45, is a zoologist. She studies wolves and she's the Director of the Wolf Conservation Centre in New York State. She lives in Connecticut and works with her husband, Spencer. Maggie also visits schools and teaches children about wolves. She works 5 days a week, but she goes to the Wolf Centre on Sundays, too, because she likes it there!

In her free time she reads a lot, and watches TV with her daughter, Eleanor. She also plays tennis, and walks their dog, Drew.

Frankie Dettori was born in Milan, Italy in 1970. He now lives in England near Newmarket, a market town famous for its race courses. His wife, Catherine, is English. They have five children, Leo, Ella, Tallula, Rocco, and Mia. He doesn't have many weekends off.

Frankie says: 'I don't have many free weekends because on Saturdays and Sundays I ride. I often have Mondays off, but then everybody is at work, so I have no friends to play with. That's very sad.

I have some weekends free, and I like coming home to my house, near Newmarket. It's nice – I get home on a Friday night, put on my pyjamas and watch TV. Brilliant! But, it's very noisy – we have five kids and a lot of pets. One of my daughters got an emu on the Internet, he's called Bruce and lives in the garden. We also have a gecko – it's my son's – a hedgehog, and two donkeys.

On Saturday nights, I sometimes cook. I usually do fish and chicken, but I cook a good pasta as well – obviously Italian food is my favourite. I'm a big fan of Japanese food as well.

On Sundays, my kids often compete in pony club shows. Pony club competitions last a whole day. We pack a picnic, the ponies and our three dogs and all set off for the show, a happy family. I like watching the kids on their horses.

In the evening, I usually watch a football game. I'm an Arsenal fan. I'd love to be a footballer, but I'm too small. By the end of the weekend, the house is a mess – there are children's toys and clothes everywhere. Catherine gets the kids to bed and I have a glass of wine.

Alexandra Burke was born in London. She now lives in a village near the city. She is one quarter Jamaican, Indian, Irish and English. Her mother was a soul and R&B singer. Alexandra won the TV talent show The X Factor and now stars in West End musicals. She likes to spend weekends at home with her dogs and family.

Alexandra says: 'On Fridays I like to have my family to my house – my brothers, David and Aaron, my sister Sheniece, my mum and my dad. I always cook. I make Spaghetti Bolognese, my favourite food. I love it!

My three dogs, Alfie, Prince and Teddy, run around and there's reggae music because my dad's Jamaican. My dad lives near me. He's a chef and I want to learn how to make Jamaican food.

On Saturdays, I get up late – Alfie sleeps on my bed – then I take the dogs for a walk. I often spend the day with my nieces and nephews. We have a picnic lunch in the garden, or when it's nice and hot we go to the park.

As a Jamaican family we like to have chicken soup on Saturday night. Dad usually makes it.

On Sunday mornings, I often do a 'hot' yoga class near my house. Then we go to church. It's always very lively, with lots of singing and a band. After church we sometimes go to the pub for a roast dinner and then we go home and watch the football together as a family. My family support Arsenal, but I'm a Manchester United fan. In the evening, we sometimes drive into London and go to a club. The Drury Club in Covent Garden is great on a Sunday. It's got great music – my dad often comes, too.

There is never a day when I don't speak to my mum or my dad. I talk to my brothers and sister, too. I have a lot of great people around me. I'm very lucky.'

1. Retell the text in your own words

Gary Connery is 42 and he’s a ‘wingsuit flyer’. He has made over 1,350 jumps from a helicopter over 730 metres above the Earth. He’s flown free through the air at 80mph (128kph) and landed without a parachute. He has jumped from the Eiffel Tower, Nelson’s Column, the London Eye, Tower Bridge, and from inside the Millennium Dome.

So, what exactly is ‘wingsuit flying’? It is the sport of skydiving, but you don’t use a parachute to land. You wear a special suit with huge wings on the arms and legs, and you fly for miles like a bird and finally land on a mountain of cardboard boxes!

Gary’s lucky – the sport he loves is also his work. He has worked in over 100 films as a stunt man. Perhaps you saw him in one of the ‘Indiana Jones’ or ‘Batman’ films or in TV’s ‘Sherlock Holmes’. But surely his most famous role was when he played Queen Elizabeth II in the opening ceremony of the 2012 Olympics in London and flew into the Olympic Stadium.
