Abstract

Write down here your paper's abstract in one paragraph, in the Italic style of font, no more than 250 words. The abstract is not an "introduction", nor the conclusion of the discussion. Instead, it should contain, but not limited to: (1) the main question and the background of the discussed issue; (2) the research position; (3) how the question is discussed in the paper; and (4) the main result of the discussion. Other important matters discussed in the paper that significantly contribute to the final result of the research may be noted here, but you have to consider, however, the limited space of the abstract.

Keywords: mention only specific concepts [word or phrase], 3-5 concepts, truly conceptual words, and not too general ones.

Introduction

Your text is here, in 12pt font-size, 1.5 line-spacing; don't add space before and/or after paragraphs. It is much better not to format your text in a specific technique. Instead, just leave it plain except that you really need to type certain words in a "special method", or to emphasize certain words or words. Italic is a must in typing a non-English word. The Arabic word is transliterated based on Fikrotuna: Jurnal Pendidikan dan Manajemen Islam See <http://ejournal.kopertais4.or.id/madura/index.php/fikrotuna/Guideline>

Please explore, in more words, the background of your paper and your current research position, among other research on related themes. You should discuss here as well your research's relations with those of other researchers; literature review, especially on most relevant, newly academic works published in high reputation journals, is a must.

To put it another way, please try to answer at least two questions: (1) why you believe that your research question is so important to answer; and (2) how other scholars have or have not answered, or how you think your answer would be a contribution to the existing scholarship on the subject.

A little bit of exploration of your discussion flows and the expected final results will be good points for closing this introduction section.

Method

Method consists of description of research type, data collection, data source, data type, and data analysis. It is written in a paragraph form.

The First Aspect of the Discussion, As the Second Section

Here you may discuss every aspect of the issue one by one. It is necessary to build an argument and provide original data discussed and compared to other scholars' research and works. In other words, the way to discuss an issue here is by combining the data and the discussion. So, it is not recommended to separate merely data description from the analysis on it.

Every quotation is written down in a specific way that can be identified as a “quotation” different from your original text. At the end of every quotation, you have to put its reference[s] in the footnote style of Fikrotuna: Jurnal Pendidikan dan Manajemen Islam. A reference must also be put at the end of every citation that paraphrases ideas from someone’s works. If a citation is taken from a book, it must be like this, and the subsequent citation is like this¹, A book with volumes² cited in a subsequent note;³ Please note that the footnote reference number is placed after [not before] any punctuation. Citations from any previous references, but not subsequently cited, are noted like this.⁴ Just mention the last name of the author and the sorted version of the work’s title.

The Second Aspect of the Discussion, the Style of Other References

Examples of references other than books are paper in a journal [include the unique “doi” number],⁵ or this journal [include the unique “doi” number],⁶ websites,⁷ magazines and newspapers,⁸ book chapters,⁹ a master thesis,¹⁰ and a Ph.D thesis.¹¹ Please provide a complete internet URL whenever available along with the date access (see footnote 8).

The Third Aspect of the Discussion, and so on

It is possible to add sections as needed. A section may consist of several sub-sections, typed in bold-italic and numbered list style, like the following example.

Sub-Section as Part of its Parent Section

You do not need to add any special indentation in typing body text under the subsection heading. The body text here is typed, just like any other body text.

Another Sub-Section

Although you may need another subheading under this “subsection”, it is strongly not recommended to do so. Instead, please arrange your discussion and explanation in narrative paragraphs. In addition, the listing style of the text paragraph is also not suggested.

If you need to include any table, figure, image, or other illustration, please provide a high-resolution picture file as an attachment for your submission file. However, we will be very happy if you can convert such illustrations into narratives and do not include any picture in your paper.

Conclusion

Please provide here your remarks as a closing statement. It could be a final conclusion from your discussion and analysis and your recommendations for further research projects. In this section, you may give your acknowledgement to people and parties whose support makes your research possible.

Bibliography

List the references that are cited and actually written/quoted in the text from primary sources (80% from scientific journals, 20% from other supporting sources). Use the Turabian style 9th edition (full note) format using manager reference (mendeley/zotero/endnote), for example.
