

Image and Words

This presentation intends to explore the role of images as narrative thread and organizing principle in the comprehension of texts and the production of students' own writings. It also tries to raise awareness of the intricate relationship between linguistic choices and thought. Students' writings will be the focus of this analysis.