

SUMMER RESOURCES!

Carnegie Hall Musical Explorers

This is a wonderful site for families to explore cultural communities through music. There are five different programs to try. Check it out and let me know what you think!

Pitch Exploration Seeing Music

This website listens to your voice and represents the sound visually. It's a lot of fun to see what your vocal explorations look like!

Arioso Singing Voice (Lala Land)

Use this website to create your own story using your singing voice like you're in Lala Land! It will give you an emoji to sing about, click "Next" to get another emoji to add the next part of the story and so on. It's simple to use and my daughter Lucy gives it two thumbs up!

Marvellous Musical Podcasts

Excellent podcast series about musicians, there are recurring characters and the more you listen the funnier it gets! There is also a quiz to take at the end of each episode if you wish.
