

Rules

Ok so I'm not the type of person that puts rules but it is something necessary here.

- PRECAUTION IS ADVISED. Having a Rocket muse means that the following NSFW topics are going to be present: angst, violence, gore, death, bad language, use of drugs and alcohol.
- I am semi-selective and private (I can choose who I follow and I am mutuals only). If I don't interact with you is because: I don't have ideas to plot, our characters can't interact for obvious reasons (that we can work a little bit if you are interested ;_:_), but most of the time is because I am extremely anxious, shy, lazy, or I simply enjoy seeing you in my dash.
- I know this might be a little bit too much considering that this is an OC muse, but if your muse (including a multimuse blog) doesn't have an about page, there will be few, if no zero chances for me to approach you. Please, even a little description works!
- NO INFOMODDING, NO GODMODDING ~~for fuck's sake~~
- If I drop threads please let me know. Sometimes I just forget them or don't feel inspired :(However, if I'm willing to continue our thread I'll let it know.
- I don't tend to rp explicit smut because I don't have enough experience in the writing part, but you are free to suggest me anything you'd like to try. Though, mun and muse are +18 but I will be very selective with who and how I rp topics like that, which would be discussed on Discord or IM first. IT WILL HAPPEN ONLY IF I'M COMFORTABLE WITH THE MUN AND WILL BE DONE IN PRIVATE/ the muse's private account/circles.

- Don't be a fucking weirdo and assume my NSFW content is an invitation for you to make awkward sexual comments about my muse thank you very much.
- I'm multishipper, and EVERY ship is in a different verse. This does not mean that I will automatically ship our muses, and if I decide to start or end a relationship or I don't want to go further, is because that's how she is regarding most of her relationships or me as a mun don't feel comfortable. I won't either accept someone coming after my muse without even knowing them. It has already happened and I don't want to make you feel bad, but please lets see how chemistry works here!
- For Tumblr users: I don't really care about reblog karma and all that stuff. If you want to send one without reblogging, cool. If you want to send and reblog, nice! If you want to reblog and not ask at all, it's very nice as well! I really really don't care being a meme source blog at all. And please, don't feel forced to interact with me IC or OoC!!!!!!
- For Tumblr users: Please don't reblog answered asks as a thread! It's ok if you want to reply, but please do it only if you want to have a thread.
- Muse never ever equal mun, guys.
- Something super duper important! Just because my muse is part of the Team Rocket it doesn't mean that your muse will automatically know she's a villain or that she has any links with them. Not even other villain team's muses could know!!! Otherwise any idea can be plotted :)
- UNLESS discussed beforehand I will keep writing under her MAIN ROCKET VERSE. Variations will be limited and prioritized to mutuals I feel more comfortable writing with.
- Finally, I'm pretty much a talkative mun and I'm always available to give you my discord or chat through messages!
- I forgot to add this one lmao BUT NO DRAMA THIS IS A FREE DRAMA ZONE (unless it's me venting lmao /jk). But yeah. Don't make up things about anyone to make yourself look better, don't spread rumors, do not approach me if you have issues with another user. I'm way past tumblr and twitter drama now and we're all too tired to deal with that.
