Why did you want to watch this movie? How did you hear about it?
What grabbed your attention?

The first Zootopia movie came out in 2016 when I was about 7 years old. I wanted to watch this second movie to see if it was on par with the first one, and also just because I honestly really liked the first one, and still do even at 17 years old. I heard about the movie coming out online, and when I was watching trailers at the movie theater! The snake on the cover of the movie poster grabbed my attention the most because he is a new character that was not in the first movie.

Is this movie part of a series? If so, what series?

I wouldn't technically consider this movie part of a series, but it did have one movie before it titled Zootopia. Both the first and second movie have a great storyline with important messages behind them.

Without spoiling the plot, what is this movie about? What interesting details can you tell us about it?

In Zootopia 2, the main characters Judy Hopps (a bunny) and Nick Wilde (a fox) who are now partnering detectives, are solving a new case. They are investigating a conspiracy about a dangerous reptile named Gary De'Snake, but realize that there is more to the story than what they thought.

Who are the main characters? Who was your favorite character and why? What makes them interesting?

The main characters in the story are Nick Wilde, Judy Hopps, and Gary De'snake. Judy Hopps is a bunny, who came from a worrisome and protective family. She decided early on in her life that she wanted to be a cop, and that she wanted to help people. Nick Wilde is a fox who used to be a reformed criminal but met Judy Hopps and decided to change his ways and help her with her case. The new character in Zootopia 2 is Gary De'snake which is also my favorite character. He's actually a very sweet character who seeks to clear his family's name.

Does this movie remind you of any other type of movie you've watched?

Because this movie is produced by Walt Disney Studios, it has a lot of movies that have a similar style to it. I would say some movies with a similar plot or animation are Tangled, Wonder Park, The Secret Life of Pets, Bad Guys, and Rio.

Is this movie a book-to-movie adaptation? If so, what is the name of the book and author? Have you read the book?

Although Zootopia 2 or 1 is not based off a book, it did start out with a very different plot line that was much more dark. Disney ended up changing this when their test audiences were getting upset after watching it.

Who would you recommend this movie to? What type of person would enjoy this?

I recommend this movie to everyone of all ages. I absolutely enjoyed Zootopia 1 as a kid but now watching Zootopia 2, at 17, I still really enjoyed it and didn't find it to be too "childish".

What are your thoughts on the movie poster? Do you think the poster fits what the story is about?

I definitely like the movie poster! I think adding the new character Gary De'Snake to the poster makes people curious of who he is and draws them in to watch the movie. I think the poster does fit what the story is trying to display and will definitely attract families.

Any other thoughts about the movie?

I just think everyone should give it a chance, and don't feel like it's just for kids! There's tons of other movie references and jokes in the plot. There are also great messages behind the movie that relate to today's world.
