

Mr. Ose E. Imoukhuede

An Economist, Statistician, and Management Consultant with an impressive track record spanning over three decades in Global Business Management, Brand Development, Supply Chain Management, Oil & Gas, and Agribusiness, Ose's remarkable career has been molded by experiences founded on the traditions of PriceWaterhouseCoopers (PwC), where he began his career. His professional journey has taken him across three continents of Africa, Europe, and the United States of America, where he has pioneered or holds positions on governing boards of companies spanning Agribusiness, Oil and Gas, Food and Beverage, Health and Wellness and Export Trade Consulting and Facilitation.

With a career spanning an impressive four decades, Ose has been at the forefront of fostering business and cultural connections between Africa and the United States. He has represented the distribution interests of prominent U.S. companies such as International Management Group (IMG), Warner Bros International Television Distribution (Warner Bros), and the National Basketball Association (NBA). Ose has also provided strategic consulting services to Multinational Fast-Moving Consumer Goods Companies operating in Africa, including Procter and Gamble, Cadbury Schweppes, Coca Cola International, and Unilever.

As a naturalised Nigerian-American, a special status accorded him 'in the national interest of the United States of America', in recognition of his 30-year contributions to corporate America, Ose continues to offer advisory services to multilateral institutions in support of the expansion of trade and cultural ties between the United States and Africa as part of his dedication to building institutional trade structures within the emerging global African descendant community.

We are proud to present our Executive Chairman, Mr. Ose E. Imoukhuede, who has been recognized as one the most influential people of African descent, and who will take center stage at the United Nations General Assembly in New York in September 2025.

