

Index Template

For your final assignment, you will be contributing to the South Phoenix Oral History Project.

In this assignment, you will index your interview. Here's how:

Download or save an editable version of this template. You will not have access to edit this page, because it is a template to be used by many students.

Type the name of your narrator in the box below:

Nelson Mitchell III

Now, create about 10-15 segments for your interview using the template. You may copy and paste the table as many times as you need.

Component	1
Timestamp	5:21
Title	Childhood Memories
Partial Transcript	"That's an interesting question..."
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Family, guarded, select friends, Luke Airforce Base
Synopsis	Mr. Nelson Mitchell the III recalls childhood memories and how he and his two siblings grew up in Phoenix under the watchful eye of their mother. A couple of fond memories he recounts are going to church and fishing at the Salt River lakes and growing up on a miniature farm.

Index Template

Component	2
Timestamp	9:18
Title	Built-in-Best friend
Partial Transcript	“So my brother and I were very close...”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Play, BB guns, wooden horses, Western shows
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recalls his many adventurous tales with his brother growing up on a farm. One memory, in particular, emulated the infamous Western-style movies where he and his brother frolicked around their wooden horses and experimented with bails of hay and matchsticks.

Component	3
Timestamp	25:40
Title	Moving to Okemah
Partial Transcript	“How did your grandpa first hear about Okemah?”

Index Template

Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Relatives, asthma, health.
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell's grandfather was the beginning of the Mitchell legacy in Okemah, Arizona. He makes the important notion that Nelson G. Mitchell Sr. moved from Texas to Arizona for health reasons regarding asthma.

Component	4
Timestamp	28:43
Title	Middle School Years
Partial Transcript	"Where did you go after 6th grade?"
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: School,
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts that after attending elementary school from 1st to 6th grade, he then attended Palmdale Elementary school located in South Phoenix along 32nd Street and Wier.

Component	5
------------------	----------

Index Template

Timestamp	39:38
Title	Growing Up Without Mom
Partial Transcript	“Close to the time of my 6th grade...”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Sick, high school, growing up, doctor.
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts growing up between the time of 6th grade to his senior year of highschool where his mom was basically out of the picture due to illness which was thus identified as Valley Fever.

Component	6
Timestamp	41:22
Title	Equal Rights Movement
Partial Transcript	“I think what was also happening at that time...”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Rights, movement, cops
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts the equal rights movements happening and how South Mountain High School was affected. He specifically remembers a cop car being turned over, classes being let out early due to student arrests, and fires in trashcans.

Index Template

--	---

Component	7
Timestamp	43:40
Title	Conservative Beliefs
Partial Transcript	“Going back to my dad again...”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Dad, conservative, church, beliefs, Black power
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts growing up in a household where his mother was rarely present because of her illness. Mitchell’s father due to his upbringing and life experiences leaned more conservative. Mitchell remembers some conflict at times within his household.

Component	8
Timestamp	45:39
Title	Participating in a Newspaper

Index Template

Partial Transcript	"It was like a newspaper..."
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Writing, movement, Richard Harris Subjects: Freedom, creativity
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts being involved in a club outside of highschool that focused on creating a newspaper. This is where he developed his love and creativity for writing. His mentor Richard Harris taught his pupils of the events in South Phoenix and the movement.

Component	9
Timestamp	46:22
Title	Finding Your Voice
Partial Transcript	"And it kinda gave us a voice..."
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Voice, speech, debate
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts finding his voice through participating in writing this newspaper as well as being a part of the speech and debate club at his high school. This in turn opened up a world for Mitchell that he had not experienced.

Index Template

--	------------------------------

Component	10
Timestamp	48:35
Title	“Speaker at High School Graduation”
Partial Transcript	“Were you ever involved in any marches?”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Radical, speaker, graduation
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell was selected as one of the speakers at his high school graduation. He remembers his speech being sprinkled with some radical ideas and that the Arizona Republic had written an article about it.

Component	11
Timestamp	50:54
Title	“Change in College”

Index Template

Partial Transcript	"We had some marches around the college campus."
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Marches, college, poetry, protests
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts on the activities participated at the college campus. Citing poetry and readings in support of Black voices. He had a fair share of participation in marches and protests as well.

Component	12
Timestamp	51:55
Title	"University Life"
Partial Transcript	"Did you go to Phoenix college, ASU?"
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Best time of life, liberating, freedom, fun
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts living the good ole' days in Arizona State University. He remembers the fond memories of how liberating, freeing, and fun his time was during university. He got his credentials in communications.

Index Template

Component	13
Timestamp	55:45
Title	“Key Magazine”
Partial Transcript	“What did you do after college?”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Work, activities, events, Phoenix metropolitan, Scottsdale
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts his memories right out of college working for a local magazine called Key Magazine that was distributed throughout hotels. His 1st big job was for an insurance company where he was a claims adjuster.

Component	14
Timestamp	1:07:20
Title	“Construction of the Freeway”
Partial Transcript	“The angst, the gut punch...”

Index Template

Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Property, interstate, house
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts that his father sold his property in order to move to a better “neighborhood” as the previous one started dwindling. The interstate was the reason that cut through the very heart of Okemah.

Component	15
Timestamp	1:11:59
Title	“The Mitchell Start”
Partial Transcript	“Going back to my grandfather...”
Keywords/Subjects	Keywords: Growing up, self-reliant, neighborhood.
Synopsis	Mr. Mitchell recounts the great mind of his grandfather and how self-reliant he was when growing up. He claims that he was able to build his house, fix shoes, even pipe, carpentry, and brick work.