Subject Line: I couldn't do it anymore...

5 games in a row, lost. And the sad reality is it was all my fault.

I just wasn't good enough as a midfielder.

I was constantly getting outplayed, nothing I could do in the state I was in.

I wanted to give up. I wanted to call it quits on my soccer life and live a normal life with a 9-5 instead.

But... I kept pushing. One last chance to prove myself as a midfielder.

I knew things had to change, or else the results would stay the same, suffering from defeat.

And then it happened.

I created the perfect plan that took my skills to a whole new level. I crafted the perfect physique as a midfielder. I started to win my games.

I became a beast out on the field.
