

Tentative Opening: MYP and DP German Teacher (Full-Time, Short-Term Substitute)

The International School of Latvia is seeking a passionate and committed German Teacher to join our international faculty as a full-time, short-term substitute. This role will support students in both the International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme (MYP) and the Diploma Programme (DP), providing continuity of high-quality teaching and learning.

About the Role:

We are looking for an educator who is enthusiastic about teaching German and excited to contribute to our diverse, student-centered learning community. The successful candidate will bring creativity, flexibility, and collaboration to the classroom while fostering intercultural understanding and a love of language learning.

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan and deliver engaging and rigorous German instruction within the IB MYP and DP frameworks.
- Support student learning through thoughtful lesson design, feedback, and assessment.
- Work collaboratively with colleagues to ensure continuity and excellence in teaching.
- Contribute to a positive and supportive classroom and school culture.

Required Qualifications:

- Degree in German, Education, or a related field.
- Previous teaching experience in a school environment, ideally in an IB school context.
- Strong communication and organizational skills.
- Commitment to international-mindedness and student well-being.

Position Details:

- Contract type: Full-time, short-term substitute
- Start date: To be determined
- Duration: Tentative, to be determined

If this opportunity excites you, we would love to hear from you. Please email your resume and a cover letter in English to hr@isl.edu.lv