

Process Paper

- 1. I chose my topic because I was interested in how american writers reacted to Stalin and the soviet and I discovered Max Eastman, an american writer who was against Stalin and Marxism. Max Eastman created articles and books and used them to communicate to the public how socialism and marxism were not viable philosophies and how Stalin would use these philosophies in a negative way.
- 2. I conducted all of my research online and I had to use one E book since Max Eastman created many books and articles, so I used many primary sources since he was a writer. I used google to find secondary sources that explains what his beliefs were and I used more sources to understand the history of Russia at the time.
- 3. I created my project by using the research that I accumulated over time to help me create an essay which will be my final project.
- 4. The argument that I have is that Max Eastman, an American writer helped expose Stalin and expose marxism and socialism through his use of communication.
- 5. My thesis statement is important in history because it displays how Max Eastman helped expose Stalin and also exposed the philosophes marxism and socialism that Stalin used.

Thesis Statement: In 1924 Max Eastman an american writer had just returned from his trip from the soviet union, He began working on books and articles to expose Stalin and explains why it shouldn't become in power and also explains how communism, socialism and marxism has failed. Max's use of communication through articles and books help exposed and helped people understand why stalin should not be in power and explains the failure socialism and marxism.