

Guidelines

- 01. Astrxliis is an original character blog that is fandomless, this muse has original lore, verses and headcanons and is NOT associated with any fandom nor any RPC on tumblr. All are welcome to interact regardless if you are canon, OC, crossover or canon-divergent.
- 02. Please be of age for any rps, you MUST be 21+ in order to interact with me. Absolutely NO MINORS! NO EXCEPTIONS! Even if you are an adult rping or using actual minor fcs [those being under 18], I will not follow, interact or rp with you. You will be blocked for the foreseeable future. Sorry if that sounds harsh, but I don't like adults rping minor characters. This means no muses under 21+.
- 03. This blog will have NSFW content and will be tagged accordingly. Smut and other NSFW content will be present so please block the following tags if you do not want to see it. You may also block any other tags if needed. If you prefer to not rp smut of nsfw, i am okay with that and we can do fade to blacks or just simply plot a relationship. I will not be upset for not wanting to rp smut or nsfw and I don't want to make anyone uncomfortable either.
- 04. Anon is going to be permanently off due to unwanted anon rps and some accounts being weird towards my muse. Any memes I reblog that mention anon will not be reblogged due to my anon being off. I apologize if that's how you get yourself out there or you just don't want to be seen but I am not risking getting weird anons.
- 05. This blog is OC, Canon, Crossover and Canon Divergent Friendly! I love all muses regardless of what they are. All are welcome! Just no child muses or children muses in general. If your muse[s] has a child or children, we can talk about having them in an rp but nothing more than that.
- 06. No drama please, I do not want my dash filled with it nor do I want spam regarding the drama. Callouts are okay but please do not bring me into it. I have the right to block you for continuously bringing drama, callouts and other issues to my blog or my dash. Keep any drama off my blog. Venting in OOC is okay since you are allowed to express your feelings.
- 07. I am very okay with shipping my muse with your muse[s] as long as there's chemistry between our muses and they are not minors. My muse is bisexual but has a strong leaning towards men but he does like everyone regardless of gender but if your muse[s] are not into a sort of romantic relationship he can absolutely be friends with your muses. Platonic shipping is always allowed no matter what your muse is or identifies as.
- 09. I work Mon-Fri from 8-5 and I always have weekends off unless something comes up. There will be some days where i will forget i am even rping and ignore my blog for a few days or i am very tired from work and i don't feel like responding to rps but that has nothing to do with you, it's just work has exhausted me to my limits.
- 10. This blog will use icons as well as post dividers. I am trying to get into aesthetics and trying to use icons. But if you prefer me to not use any icons or dividers I will not use them. Sometimes I'll forget to myself since I do get tired and don't feel like adding extra stuff especially on mobile where I cant use icons but i can use dividers.
- 11. No godmodding please and thank you. I will not do it to you so don't do it to me..simple and easy.

12. I will be using a mobile phone to respond to rps a majority of the time so icons and post dividers may not be on any rps but sometimes I will use my laptop for when I want to have iconed rps. But my phone is my main source for now until something changes. Also don't get after me for any spelling mistakes. My phone's keyboard is small and my thumbs are huge so I apologize if there are some misspelled words.

13. This blog is heavily anti-AI, keep that shit away from me. If you have to rely on a computer to write or make stuff for your blog or yourself, that's you being a lazy bum and trying to find an easy way out of doing the work yourself. You will be blocked for using AI for anything. Keep that useless shit away from me and my blog.

14. Please do not reblog any of my posts / rps as I don't want to have my notifications go haywire, you can like said posts but please do not reblog them if you are not involved in said rps. I will block you if you reblog my rps / threads.

15. No personals may interact, follow or anything of that sort unless you have or are running a rp side blog and have to follow from your main. Just let me know who you are and we are golden.
