

2025–2026 GrACE Annual Intentions

Theme : Anchored in Christ, Beacon of Hope

Scripture : “We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul.” — Hebrews 6:19

September 2025

- For all students and families: That this school year be anchored in Christ and filled with the radiant hope of His love
- For Catholic educators: That they may serve as beacons of hope, rooted in Christ and committed to forming hearts in holiness
- For clergy and school staff: That their witness to the Eucharist and sacramental life may strengthen Catholic identity in our schools
- For Catholic trustees: That their leadership may be anchored in truth and filled with courage

October 2025

- For Catholic Education: That our communities may boldly witness to the hope of the Gospel
- For students: That they may grow in courage, truth, and love through deep encounter with Jesus Christ
- For Catholic schools: That they remain joyfully Christ-centered, sacramentally rich, and morally clear
- For our Blessed Mother’s intercession: That she wrap every student in her mantle and lead them to her Son

November 2025

- For all Catholic schools: That they may radiate the glory of God through every word and action

- For inspiration from the saints: That students and educators may follow the example of holy men and women who were anchored in Christ
- For young people: That they may be formed in wisdom and virtue to become beacons of light in their communities
- For unity: That all Catholic education communities may remain strong in mission and witness

December 2025

- For Catholic Education during Advent: That our hearts and classrooms prepare with joyful hope for Christ's coming
- For Catholic educators: That their daily work radiate the light of Christ to the young
- For our schools: That they be true spiritual Bethlehem where Jesus is welcomed, adored, and loved
- For the gift of JOY: That it may dwell richly in our schools and homes this Christmas

January 2026

- For Catholic Education: That Christ be the anchor and beginning of all our resolutions this new year
- For students: That they may be filled with hope and purpose as missionary disciples
- For families: That they may be strengthened in their role as first teachers of the faith
- For Catholic schools: That they remain faithful to the teachings of Christ and the Church

February 2026

- For Catholic Education: That we remain steadfast in hope and anchored in truth amid a changing world
- For students: That their love for learning and desire for holiness may grow through their Catholic education
- For vocations: That young people may be open to God's call to priesthood, consecrated life, and holy matrimony

- For all educators: That they may be blessed in their sacred calling to teach and form young hearts

March 2026

- For Catholic schools: That they may proclaim the eternal truth of God's plan in love and fidelity
- For students: That they may be inspired by the witness of Blessed Carlo Acutis and grow in Eucharistic devotion
- For hope: That our Catholic schools may be lighthouses in a time of confusion and despair
- For courage: That Catholic leaders may resist compromise and proclaim the Gospel with boldness

April 2026

- For Holy Week: That our Catholic schools be places of silence, reflection, and sacramental preparation
- For Easter joy: That all members of our Catholic communities rejoice in the Risen Christ and carry His hope into the world
- For our mission: That Catholic education is a visible sign of God's kingdom
- For gratitude: That our schools truly celebrate and safeguard the gift of Catholic education

May 2026

- For Government: That they enact decisions which protect and support Catholic education
- For the month of Mary: That devotion to the Blessed Mother and the Rosary grow in our schools
- For thanksgiving: That we recognize and celebrate the gift of publicly funded Catholic education
- For youth: That they may answer the call to be saints and leaders in our world

June 2026

- For Catholic Education: That our schools may shine with the hope of Christ as the school year ends
- For teachers: That they may be blessed with rest, renewal, and joy as they complete another year of service
- For students: That the seeds of faith sown this year may bear lasting fruit
- For the future: That Catholic education continue to form generations anchored in Christ and ablaze with hope