Casidy Rae is a Dallas, Texas-born artist who earned a BFA from Southern Methodist University's Meadows School of the Arts. Her work is deeply inspired by themes of the female form, nature, and transformation, capturing the beauty and vitality of life. Using bold and bright color palettes, she aims to convey the zest and richness of the human experience through her paintings.

Her art has been exhibited in diverse locations, including Miami, SoHo, Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego, Dallas, Madrid, and will soon be featured in Paris this May. When not creating new works, she enjoys traveling, seeking new experiences, reading, and collecting materials that inspire future paintings.
