Side 5: Reporters

Cast: Reporter 1, Reporter 2, Reporter 3

REPORTER 1: On your first local news tonight at ten, more on [young Amy Draft.]

REPORTER 2: [Bringing you the most extensive coverage of [the Draft disappearance.]

REPORTER 3: [Tonight at eleven, our] coverage of the Amy Draft [abduction continues.]

REPORTER 1: [The investigation] into the young girl's disappearance, now four days ago, has taken an [unexpected turn.]

REPORTER 2: [Sources within] the police department state that the lack of evidence to support an intruder in the home is causing a serious refocusing [of the investigation.]

REPORTER 1: [As police explore] possible [alternative theories.]

REPORTER 3: [Exhausting the very] [few viable leads.]

REPORTER 2: [Including a more] extensive examination of the girl's parents.

REPORTER 3: [The mother] and father.

REPORTER 2: As previously reported, Jackie Draft, was home at the time [of the disappearance].

REPORTER 1: [Inexplicably, she cannot] account for the girl's whereabouts for several hours.

REPORTER 2: The Drafts have continually refused to make [a public statement]

REPORTER 3: [The couple remains] resolute in refusing to engage the press.

REPORTER 1: We will continue to update [you throughout the evening.]

REPORTER 2: [We will continue] to update [you throughout the evening.]

REPORTER 3: [We will continue to] update you throughout the evening.