Iowa Western Community College FERPA Consent

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) afford students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

1. You can see your records.

You have the right to look at your education records within 45 days of asking. Submit a written request to the Registrar, and they'll set up a time for you to review them.

2. You can ask for corrections.

If you think something in your records is wrong, you can ask IWCC to fix it. Write to the Registrar, explain what's wrong, and suggest the change. If IWCC disagrees, you can request a hearing. This does not include disputing a grade that is incorrect.

3. Your records are private.

IWCC needs your permission to share your personal information, but there are some exceptions. School officials (like teachers, advisors, or administrators) can access records if it's necessary for their job.

4. You can file a complaint.

If you believe IWCC isn't following FERPA rules, you can report it to the U.S. Department of Education at this address:
Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605
