

Hands and feet poem

Hands have fingers on them.

And feet have toes on them.

Never stop washing your hands.

Does everyone here love hands and feet.

Super feet and hands they're so helpful.

All of the people in the world have hands and feet.

No one has six toes.

Dude they are so cool.

Fun to wiggle your toes.

End of the poem is coming up.

Even closer to the end now.

Time to end my poem now.
