

Fort Moultrie

- Made of _____ logs
- British cannon balls just sank into the soft palmetto logs

Who won?

- The British fleet withdrew;
_____ victory

Fall of Charleston

- Harbor was _____ and supply lines cut off
- Patriot troops were trapped on the peninsula

Who won?

- _____ forced to surrender to the British- May 1781

Battle of Camden

- SC _____ unprepared and fled
 - Signified that almost all of SC was controlled by the British
- Nathaniel Greene took over as commander of the _____ Army in the south from Horatio Gates

Who won?

- Defeat for the regular _____ Army

Battles of Kings Mountain

- Loyalist forces and British regulars that had been rampaging through the _____ were stopped by North and South Carolina patriots (mostly mountain men).

Who won?

- King's Mountain is considered a turning point because the _____ began to retreat from the Backcountry/Upcountry.

Battle of Cowpens

- Cooperation of the Continental Army and the irregular partisan forces.
- _____ lured the British forces into the guns of the regular American army.
- British retreated northward into North Carolina.

Who won?

- The British were _____
 - First time in the war that an American army defeated a force consisting of mostly British regulars

Battle of Eutaw Springs

- Battle between British and _____ after harsh treatment of Patriot officers by the British.
- Final major battle in South Carolina

Who won?

- The British cleared the state and it ended the British _____ campaign.

Yorktown

- The Continental Army and French Army worked together to defeat the British and force a surrender on _____