

Reflect on the journal story 'Finding George' Think about some of the things George was experiencing.

Imagine that you are in the same situation as George. Write a postcard to those at home telling them what you are experiencing. Try to draw on all your senses: What are you seeing, hearing, smelling, feeling, tasting.