

GRAMMAR – Identifying Adjective Endings: Error Correction

Read the following sentences and identify the errors. Rewrite the sentences with the correct adjective form.

1. The weather this week was interested. It was cold one day and warm the next.
2. I felt so boring during work. There were no customers.
3. The book was very excited. I couldn't put it down.
4. She was very embarrassing after she dropped her books in front of everyone.
5. The food was disgusted, Leo couldn't even finish his plate.
6. The party was absolutely amazed. I had so much fun!
7. The sales associate looked annoying when I asked her to help me find something.
8. Bruno Mars' new music album was very disappointed. He doesn't sound the same anymore.
9. They was terrifying after watching the scary movie.*