Please check that you are signed up for the correct division and weight class. Please check that your name is spelled correctly.

Board Views are for you and your coach to follow along on the day of the event. This is the link that your family and friends can follow along from home. This is also where you will see the flight order when first attempts are entered after weigh-ins are complete. Please check this before lifting begins.

*Flights may change due to dropouts and no-shows

*Sessions are set unless you are contacted personally of a change

*Because the overall lifters are determined by the DOTS formula, and this is a local meet, the sessions were created by DOTS according to the Open Powerlifting website.

We plan to have a live stream. It will be streamed on the Fight Or Quit YouTube channel.

Weight changes: Please contact me as soon as possible if your weight class is changing. This is for scheduling purposes, flight configurations, and award preparation if you need a weight change. If there are changes after this week, including the day of the meet, you will still be able to compete; you may forfeit receiving a medal if you place.

There are no refunds.
