Bulletin No. 140

ATTENTION CLASS OF 2024 - JUNIOR PARENT NIGHT

On Thursday April 13th at 6:30 PM in the cafeteria, the school counseling staff is hosting a fun and informative evening for current juniors and their parents. An Admissions Counselor from UMass Lowell will discuss the college admissions process, from the viewpoint of the person reading applications. In addition, a panel of current seniors will speak about their experiences, what helped them most and what they wish they had done differently. This event is always a favorite! Please join us.

Looking for an opportunity to explore the sports industry?

WISHING is Women in Sports Helping Inspire the Next Generation designed for high school junior and senior women to learn about careers in the sports industry.
