

What is a bridge?

A bridge is a protocol that connects two chains together in order to enable user's to interact between them and perform transactions cross chain.