

Friendly Uncle's MLP:FiM FanFic List

Version: 1.4
Updated: Sunday, July 3rd, 2012
New: The Creature that Came to Ponyville is at long last complete, clocking in at 9 chapters and good lord I'm tired. I've also added a comedy short entitled "Estrus." Expect that sequel to Correspondence sometimes in the next few months.

"Look out fellas, Gay Boy and Friendly Uncle comin' at ya."

I am in fact an uncle and generally consider myself to be quite friendly. I mostly write comedy and random weirdness, but I cannot deny that writing stories about multicolored ponies giving each other hugs and coming to terms with their feelings makes me happy for reasons that I am not psychologically secure enough to go into. I'm also currently writing a fanfic that involves ponies being attacked by facehuggers, so there's really no telling what I might get up to in the future. We're all going to find out together.

Aside from here my fics can usually be found on Equestria Daily. After hearing some complaints about Google Docs as a mass fiction sharing service I've also dusted off a Fanfiction.net account so old that it borders on the geological, and will be uploading stories there for all and sundry to read and tell me how much they smell (please ignore the really old stuff oh god I was still in high school when I did some of this crap it burns). I can also be found lurking on /co/. I enjoy mixed drinks and long walks on the beach.

I have a tumblr if you'd like to ask what is wrong with me.

If you wish to email me, it would be alright.

Warning: The following stories tend to rely on humor of a decidedly adult nature. I rarely write out and out porn, but the jokes and situations in my fics do tend to get a bit extreme and they are neither appropriate for young children nor safe to browse while at your place of employment. Proceed with all due caution!

Normal

Clean (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Random] Pinkie Pie ponders one of the great secrets of the pony universe. For everyone who didn't get it: That's the joke.

Moon Shy (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Sad/Cute] Two of the quieter ponies have a short talk about the importance of expressing themselves. May or may not evolve into something shippier in the future. I like that Fluttershy and Luna can just sit and talk, but they are also mind-bendingly cute together. Decisions decisions...

Messin' With Celestia (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Random/Funny] Third place winner in Equestria Daily's April Fools contest. Princess Celestia has the worst day ever. Also, Pinkie Pie.

The Creature that Came to Ponyville (EqD Link)

[Crossover/Grimdark] An unfortunate mary sue discovers a strange egg in the Everfree Forest. Things only go downhill from there. My apologies if I killed off your favorite background character, I was mostly pulling names out of a hat.

Estrus (Google Docs)

[Funny/Saucy] Twilight doesn't know the facts of life. You know, the birds and the bees. The reason you sometimes get that not so fresh feeling. We're talkin' about ruttin'. And who better to fill her in than her faithful friends? ...yeah, this is gonna get ugly.

Correspondence (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Funny/Cute] My first attempt at writing within the franchise. Twilight Sparkle discovers that instantaneous communication with Princess Celestia can kind of suck when your assistant sends the wrong darn book...

Fluffershy (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Funny/Saucy] The mane cast discovers Fluttershy's dark, angsty past. I have it on good authority that this is hilarious. Not a cloptic, I promise.

Do You Really Want to Know? (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Funny/Random/Saucy] Inspired by Friendship with Benefits is Magic, by Tumbleweed, but isn't intended as a direct followup as much as my own take on the idea. What is Celestia to do when Twilight Sparkle shares a little too much? And why doesn't Twilight have any idea what she's talking about? And why is Luna smiling so much!?

Do You Really Want to Know Two: Electric Boogaloo (Google Docs)

[Funny/Random/Saucy/WTF] I was trying to finish the next part of The Creature that Came All Over Ponyville and for reasons that I have not yet been able to determine I felt the irresistible urge to produce a second epistolary fanfic featuring Twilight and Celestia and the magic of not knowing what the hay that other pony is talking about. Features a special guest appearance by naughty!Luna.

Progress Side Story: Luna vs the Threesome (Google Docs/EqD Link)

[Funny/Saucy] So a few months ago I got a PM on Fanfiction.net from a guy named Andrew Joshua Talon. "Hey," I said to myself, "that sounds familiar. Oh hey, he writes THE BEST LUNA FANFICTION EVER."

You will imagine my barely restrained glee when he tells me that he enjoys my work as well, and that he thinks my style is just perfect for a side project he's been considering but didn't feel like doing himself. Imagine a bearded and bespectacled brony hopping around in a circle squealing "Yes yes yes yes yes!" That is more or less what transpired.

Told that the subject of Hoyden's wish for a threesome deserved to be fully explored and given free reign to do so, I did the best I could. Imagine AJT's body of work as a young mare spread out before me, blushing and exposed as my untrained hooves wander clumsily over her supple curves. What I have done to the situation and the characters is probably illegal in several states, and the results speak for themselves. I apologize in advance if this story inflicts any damage upon your psyche. If you were to hurt yourself with uncontrollable laughter instead, then I am still sorry, but not quite as much. That is the preferred reaction.

Future Projects

I'm planning some additional long form fics about the ponies and their various increasingly weird adventures, but I find it's best not to count your cockatrices before they've hatched, so we'll see how much of that I actually do before I go into detail. I'd like to do more shipping, possibly involving a sequel to Correspondence. This is going to get a lot worse before it gets better.

Oh God What

"I stand by my decision," said Optimus Prime, "Though Equestria contains vast and rich deposits of Energon, enough to fund the Autobot war effort against the Decepticons for years to come, I cannot allow this peaceful world to be plundered in order to fuel our war machine. Freedom is the right of all sentient beings, including ponies."

"Neigh Optimus," said Princess Celestia, "I cannot allow the scourge of Megatron's crazed zombie robots to spread across the galaxy when I can do something to help. My army and all of my power are at your disposal. We will win this battle together."

"This is so awesome!" squealed Raf, riding around on Rainbow Dash.

"La~ame!" groused Miko. "Why would we wanna hang out with a bunch of multicolored ponies when we've got big awesome robots!?"

"I dunno," said Bulkhead, very gently patting Fluttershy on the head, "I think they're kinda cute. What do you think Jack?"

"I wasn't staring at their pony asses!"

Arcee gave Jack a look that would freeze magma.

"...I was too busy staring at Arcee's robot ass."

"That's my boy."
