Hey Jojo,

Imagine being able to flawlessly disarm any opponent, regardless of size and strength,

Having learnt a specific set of moves that allow you to smoothly remove the weapon from their hands, and put them down on the ground in a matter of seconds,

Leaving them in deep regret for ever having tried you. (and slightly impressed)

And the best part?

You can completely subdue even rigorously experienced opponents, (Because they won't even see it coming.)

This specific set of moves, hidden from the public, gives you complete control over opponents.

And they can't do a thing about it.

Held secret by the most elite military forces, SWAT teams, and high-security personnel,

Until now.

Yours in Safety,
Mugiwara
