

Cross Country - Recount Writing

WALT: create a descriptive recount that makes sense.

Introduction

Hook the reader in, and let them know what your writing is going to be about.

Paragraph 1

What is cross country. Who, When, Where, Why. All the information. What was the walk through like? What did you have to look out for?

Paragraph 2

First part of the walk through - where did you get to? What did you have to pay attention to when you were walking.

Paragraph 3

Second part of the walk through - where did you get to? What did you have to pay attention to when you were walking.

Paragraph 4

What did you have to do once we got back to school - think about stopping at the taps why did we do this?

Conclusion

What did you learn about cross country from your walk? Did you have a fun experience? Are you looking forward to the actual cross country now?
