There's a lot more to the story that isn't public, and there's more to it than both me or JiDion knew about.

Kayla apparently sent messages to EDP first, several of her friends contacted us afterward and told us that Kayla had shown them screenshots that showed her hitting EDP up first. She basically begged us to let her be a decoy for a video for clout. That's part of the reason JiDion never released it, because she mislead us on details and then made a video about it, that's what jeopardized the case against EDP. If she had never made a video about it, EDP likely would have had a chance at jail.

Hey, what's good.

Honestly, I don't know much about the case past what's public now, the legal system is pretty confusing

I wasn't aware of and wasn't involved in JiDion and Skeeter going to confront EDP until they did it

It was my advice to everyone involved to not post anything online about the case until the police had investigated it, but Kayla posted anyways, and since she posted, JiDion went and confronted EDP with Skeeter. I was pretty much out of the picture after that though

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 5:35 PM

But Kayla posted her video a week after JiDion and Skeeter did the sting video

Do you have the proof that kayla messaged edp first?

Personally I think it was a horrible idea to go confront him without police but I wasn't aware they were doing anything until he called me and told me to blacklist the term "EDP" in the discord so nobody would leak or talk about it And since JiDion quit content, I'm out of the loop with all that, I don't know any new info

But I can say the EDP situation didn't influence his decision to quit, he was already considering it before all of that He talked about quitting a lot

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 9:39 PM

I think if you guys got kaylas mom to continue messaging edp that would be fine but the fact that kayla was still having conversations with him is so irresponsible tbh, also let's be honest the edp confrontation was for content

false

Insyde we immediately told her to tell the police lol

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 9:16 PM

She filled the police report the same day of the sting

Which you said yourself that you and jidion weren't even considering anything tell she filled a report

Insyde 02/07/2024 9:17 PM

I told her to file a police report then passed the info on to JiDion, after that I had no involvement

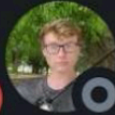

so I have no idea what she and JiDlon and Skeeter talked about, I was not part of that chat

JiDion was going to keep everything under wraps until the court case happened and not say anything about it publicly, and ideally that would have been the case, but Kayla didn't consult a lawyer before posting about it publicly. I'm not really involved in the whole thing, I was just in charge of coming up with things for JiDion to do for streams to build audience, and got EDP to agree to an interview, which initially was going to be in a private call, but then JiDion decided it would be a good idea to have people ask him questions in the discord stage.

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 8:00 PM

police aren't who you should ask about making a video, while it wasn't illegal, it definitely did nothing for the case at all, and likely harmed it

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 8:08 PM

You literally can't even argue that since you and jidion and skeeter definitely did way more harm then kayla ever did
Telling kayla not to go to the police, putting a minor in danger for content, confronting edp and his place of medical help this all was a disaster

Only stream ideas and community interaction, things for second channel, he's got people to handle other parts of his content as well. It's a team. His main manager was the same manager as KSI uses

JiDion mostly handles his own stuff a lot though

Ploobert420 02/07/2024 9:20 PM

But you can agree tho using a real minor for the video was morally wrong?

Insyde 02/07/2024 9:22 PM

I'd say it depends on what they told her, if they told her not to tell the police until they did a sting, then sure, that's not a good idea, but if the police and parents were involved and she was OK with it,

First, none of my friends knew about EDP, and it seems like these lies are being shared to protect your reputation. For the record, the case is still active, and I've received a significant update—it's likely to be resolved much sooner than expected. However, I won't be discussing it further with you, as several members of law enforcement have advised me against sharing details with anyone.

If these false narratives, which seem to be coming directly from your team, continue, I have no problem pursuing legal action. I already brought this to your attention before, yet it persists. Just because you're famous doesn't Just because you're famous doesn't mean you can take advantage of me. JiDion, I genuinely looked up to you, which makes this even more disappointing. Seeing your manager spread these lies out of fear or insecurity is incredibly disheartening.

Hello JiDion sent me I'm Kayla edps victim

He said this

Already so little heads up, I'm still trying to get this owner to give me the 11th off along with a few more of the days doesn't seem like he's budging. So if I can't do the 11th I'm definitely coming down on 20 September because that's my mom's birthday and I wanna visit her at the cemetery in LA, and I also want to Visit my sister and I'll only be two hours away. I know it sucks but it doesn't seem like there's anything that I can do.

So there's absolutely no way he can get the day off?

Don't leave me alone for my birthday :(

I canceled plans with everybody just for you

Read 6:26 PM

There's nothing that I can do like I'm trying to do everything that I can here I mean I don't wanna lose my fucking job and be fucked when I come back you know what I mean. What I can do if you're up for it, I can fly you out to Vegas and, we can spend your birthday together if you want to if that something that you're up to

Let me think about it
