

Grade Distribution

The following chart details the major summative assessments and competency areas for the course. The majority of your grade will be an average of your reading, writing, and communication summative assessments. You may wish to record your grades here and keep this sheet so that you can easily monitor your grades on these specific assignments. Remember, you must earn an average of 70% or higher (except on formative work) in order to earn credit for the course.
