

2021 Trinidad Bass Tournament Recap

Presented by KastKing

The 2021 season has come to a close with the last tournaments of the year this past weekend. With a lot on the line with Angler of the Year, Rookie of the Year and Overall Angler of the Year implications.

It was a tough day on the water. The fish were not in the mood to play. Of the 39 Anglers that participated, there were only 8 limits caught. That's crazy for a lake that normally produces not only numbers, but quality. We didn't see the plus 18 inch fish we normally see. Still it was a great weekend getting to see and talk with everyone is always special.

In 5th place, finishing off a great season (one I won't forget!) is me Alex Rojas! I finished the day with a tiny limit (57.75 inches), but it was enough to place in the top 5 and lock up Angler of the Year! I caught my fish in the back of a cove fighting 5 beavers the whole morning! The fish were caught on a ned, whopper plover, and dropshot. I won a Scheels gift package for my 5th place finish.

Finishing the day in 4th place with 65 inches is Sandi Roberts. She also managed to catch the big fish of the tournament (18 inch Smallie). The big fish got her a check for $195 and for finishing in 4th place she got a Kastking Baitcaster!

3rd place went to Clay Roberts with 65.50 inches. He found almost all his smallies off one partially submerged island. He walks away with a check for $286 and a spool of Kastking finesse line. Congrats to Clay.

Second place went to the best angler in the state (my opinion) Mr. I cash checks... Paul Roth! He finished the day with 68.50 inches. He said he was throwing a small crankbait at the shoreline all day long. We went from the south end to the west end covering water. It worked out for him, as usual. He cashes yet another check worth $370 and a spool of Kastking finesse braid. Congrats to Paul on another great season (Multi-Species and Overall AOY)!

First place, going to a guy with his first win with CKFC Chen Lee! He finished the day with 74.50 inches. He covered water today. He was all over the lake hitting his spots and moving to the next. He managed to find them on a day when few did. This win will make his check account a little happier as he cashes in a check worth $501 and a spool of Kastkings finesse braid. Congrats to Chen (fyi, he's also CKFCs first Rookie of the Year..post coming later in the week for that).

As the season ends, I can't thank all our sponsors enough! Without them we wouldn't be able to giveaway soooo much for prizes and random giveaways. At almost every single one of our events, everyone that showed up won a prize! That's awesome! So go out and show our sponsors some love. Hit them up on social media, in their stores, and let them know CKFC appreciates them!

Thanks to everyone for another successful season! I'm already anxiously awaiting for next season to start!
