

One- School, One Book Program: A Boy Called Bat

One School, One Book is a program brought to us by Read to Them.

“Read to Them is a national nonprofit whose mission is to...Create a Culture of Literacy in Every Home.”

Read more about their mission here.

This summer our school will be participating in their program One School, One Book. Each family will receive a copy of the book A Boy Called Bat by Elana K. Arnold.

Each week families will be asked to read chapters together and complete interactive tasks that go along with each chapter.

Once a week, students will meet with their teachers that they will have in the fall to review, discuss, and share their thoughts on A Boy Called Bat.

Here is some information from Mrs. Fournier about the One School, One Book Program.

More exciting information to come next week on July 13th!!! Stay tuned!
