

Magnolia Seraphine Edwards

born on a rainy Sunday morning in East Wales, an only child born to Osian and Meridith Edwards. Her early life was filled with farm animals, gardening, and open night skies. She grew to love the stars, even as a little girl she'd lay out in the grass at night and try to count as many as she could. Born to Muggle parents, they were shocked when she started showing signs of magic. Despite it; they loved her little quirk. In primary school, she met Finnley Warner, the daughter of her town mayor, and they quickly became friends. At 11 she received her letter and was escorted by McGonagall who helped her get all her supplies.

Birthday: February 20th

☀- pisces

-cancer

- gemini

Wand: after wrecking half the shop Magnolia had found her wand, an 11 1/4 inch maple wood wand with a dragon heartstrings core, carved with maple leaves.

Sorting: Magnolia was nervous to be sorted, she heard stories of all of the different houses on the train, having no first hand experience of the magical world made it a nerve-wracking experience. When her name was called she slowly walked to the stool, the hat only spent 4 seconds on her head before bellowing the word “ravenclaw”. Magnolia grew to love her house.

Quidditch: At 13 she tried out and made the Ravenclaw Quidditch team as a chaser, being small made it easy for her to efficiently score goals and pass the quaffle. She loved the sport, her favorite team being the Holyhead Harpies. She’d spend her summer practicing scoring and attending quidditch games.

Personality: a naturally sweet person, Magnolia sees the good in everyone. She's very easily persuaded and easily makes friends. She is a hopeless romantic, spending her time watching romcoms.

Patronus: at 17 Magnolia casted her patronus, a bloodhound: Bloodhounds tend to be quite patient, tenacious, loving and loyal.