

Tuesday's Thoughts
Tuesday, November 26, 2024

Good evening Highland High School families! I hope this finds you well and safe, this is Mr. Zack, and here are your Tuesday's Thoughts for November 26, 2024. There are 2 items of interest to follow. If you miss any part of the message, please visit the Highland High School webpage on our Live Feed where there is a link to view this in its entirety as well as a link that has been emailed to your primary email account.

1. Reminder: Just in time for the holidays, be sure to check out the HHS Spirit Store for Highland Gear needs. There is a link on our website as well as on the print version of our TT. The store will be open until 11:59 PM on Sunday, December 1st. Please note if this is a gift on your order and you want to be notified to pick them up as all gear will be delivered to the HHS office before Winter Break. Be sure to check out our apparel and accessories as new items have been added as well as personalization being an option for all items.

2. Parents of Seniors: As a reminder, the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) is now open.

FAFSA can feel confusing. In a nutshell, it is an application that determines how much financial help for education after high school families can receive from the Federal government and the State of Indiana. It can also be required to receive some scholarships.

Mark Your Calendar: We are hosting a Financial Aid Night on Thursday, January 23rd at 5:00 pm. We will have financial aid experts on site so that you and your student can complete your FAFSA that night! More info to come on this!

Please visit <https://learnmoreindiana.org/paying-for-college/fafsa/> for helpful resources.

That concludes our Thursday's Thoughts for this week, thanks for listening, be safe, and be well.
