

THE WiPPLEJiG BiBLE

The Lore, Meaning and Memes

A Collaborative Effort Formed By The Discord of Watsky Puzzle Solvers

Definition // GENiSiS

It started from the spline jig. Here is a clip from Watsky's iNTENTiON release live stream where he explains what a spline jig is: Here

What started with theory discussion on Discord devolved into coming onto the topic of these spline jigs. “A little tool for table saws to save you time and help you safely create strong, decorative joints in woodworking projects...” “...A wipple is a Watsky Nipple, that one's self-explanatory. WiPPLEJiG is the culmination of all the deranged, sleep-deprived energy of this discord” - Secretary K [Any/All]

This term was coined by a Discord user by the name of ‘jjøls’, after a night of joking about the wipple vs. spline jig meme superiority. After jjøls posting a 9 wipple edit (in her words: “It got flagged with 1 lol. Did not with 9”), user ‘Harry’ couldn't help but notice it looked suspiciously like a bird. Their child was born and a meme legacy was created.

Discord Mod ‘Secretary K’ goes on to explain the involvement of the bird you see above (the mascot of WiPPLEJiG if you will): “WiPPLEBiRD, both the original design (shown above), and the official, completed design (sent by whitney, even further above) was created by @/harry, using that image of the wipple”

Currently, the sect of WiPPLEfans that WiPPLEJiG about the Watsky Discord server, usually take their home in the sub-thread ##WiPPLEchat under #Theories. WiPPLEfans will welcome you with open arms, just as the WiPPLEBiRD's wings had opened up to those who first fell WiPPLEJiGGED under its WiPPLESPELL.

Above all, know this reader: WiPPLEJiG is a meme open for anyone to use or join in on! This is only one of the many memes that have arisen from the sleep-deprived chaos deep in the ARG think tank, and there will surely be many more moving forward.

Usage //

Camilla: “Check out the nipple on Watsky!”

Kush: “Watsky’s nipple is commonly referred to as a ‘Wipple!’”

Camilla: “Well that just makes me want to do a jig! A Wipplejig if you will!”

Kush: “That is Wipplejiggingly enthralling my dear, you should Wipplejig to your heart’s delight!”

The term has since evolved to take the form of any WiPPLEJiG related paraphernalia, usually taking on the word structure of “WiPPLE__” (Just put ‘Wipple’ out in front of whatever WiPPLE themed idea you have).

A short interpretive rap about WiPPLEJiG

Lyrics: Not often that a shape gets us bent out of shape
But we see no escape so we put
All our feelings on tape
Man we needed a break
Cause we're fiending for clues
All the wipples on deck
And the jigs are here too

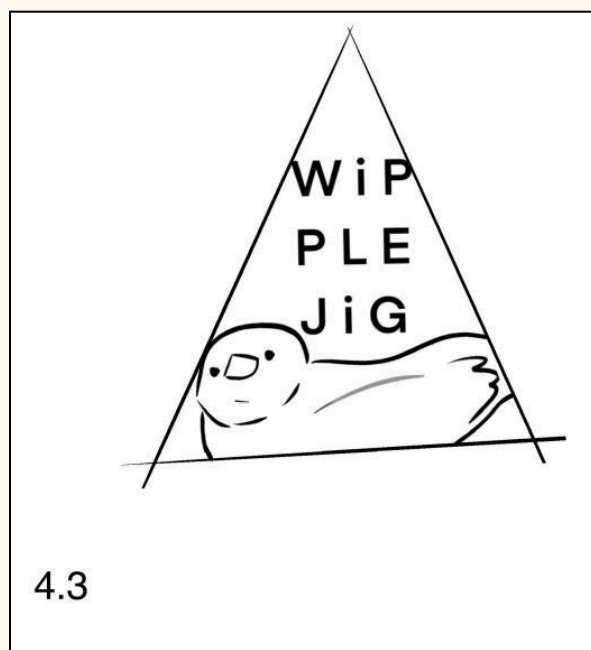

But the jig is not up
Tats on our bodies and shit in our pants
Waitin' on hints so that we can advance
More 9s than Big Smoke could order, lets

Dance dance to the melody of wipplebirds
Flying high, so majestic, get the little worms
Its a sight guaranteed to make your wipples curl
Started with one man, who hoodwinked our little worlds

Suddenly, a voice boomed through the air, and the creatures scattered in all directions. It was the ARG, the god of chaos and confusion, who had come to wreak havoc on this land. He began to summon triangles from thin air, which started bouncing around and knocking everything over.

As I tried to run away, I bumped into James, who was frantically searching for his headphones. He had apparently lost them in the chaos, and was now completely disoriented. Meanwhile, I realized with horror that I had somehow managed to shit my pants during all the commotion.

Feeling embarrassed and overwhelmed, I started to lose my mind. Suddenly, a figure appeared out of nowhere, dressed in a hoodwinked cloak. It was none other than Watsky, the great wordsmith and rapper, who had come to save us from the madness.

With a wave of his hand, he banished the ARG and the triangles back to whatever realm they had come from. Then, he turned to me and said, "Don't worry about shitting your pants, my friend. We've all been there."

Feeling relieved, I thanked Watsky for his help and we set off together to explore this strange land. As we walked, he began to recite a poem he had written about the wonders of wipplejigs, and we both laughed and sang along.

Despite the chaos and confusion, this dream ended up being a memorable and amusing adventure, thanks to the unexpected presence of Watsky and his words of wisdom.

So let go of your worries, and embrace the absurd,
 The Wipplejig is waiting, to be explored and observed.
 And don't be afraid of what you don't know,
 With the Wipplejig, anything goes.
 Welcome to the Wipplejig, the bird of all knowledge and lore,
 He'll show you the way to the truth, and so much more.

The SHiTPANTS Denomination

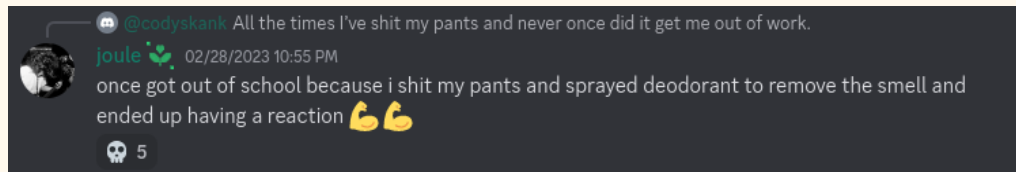

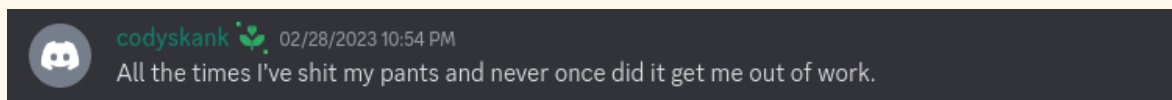

While we all may trust and pray for the Wipplejig, there are many denominations of our belief. The WiPPLEJiG-ers, the Monkey Poggers, the Pantshitters. While some may believe our day of reckoning- the full release of INTENTION- will come alongside our blessed Wipplejig, there are some who trust that if we all simultaneously shit our pants, we will receive said album.

The first recorded usage of 'ShitPants'

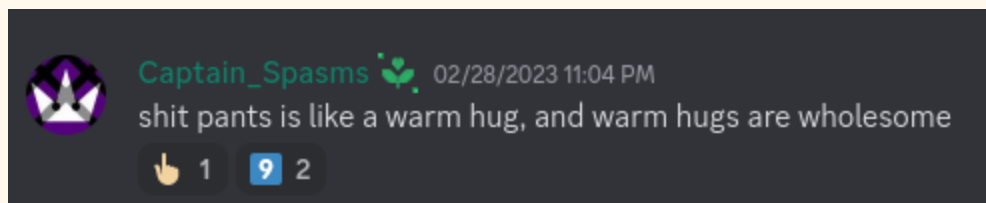

Its origins are unclear, but one ARG-solver reportedly shit themselves at work, in order to leave and work on the ARG at home. This led to a full-blown derail of 20 minutes, talking about times we have shit our pants.

The message that derailed it all

Joule's experience with pantshitting

We asked Watsky to comment on his pantshitting status, to which we received no reply. So wherever you are, and whoever you may be, just remember:

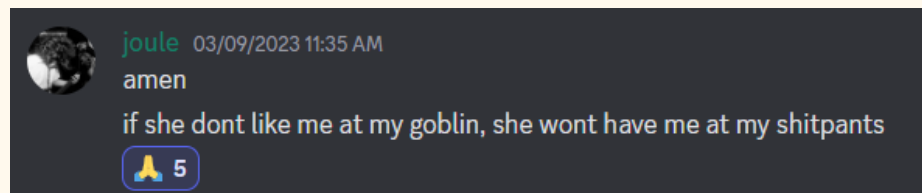

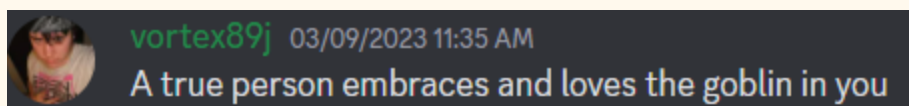

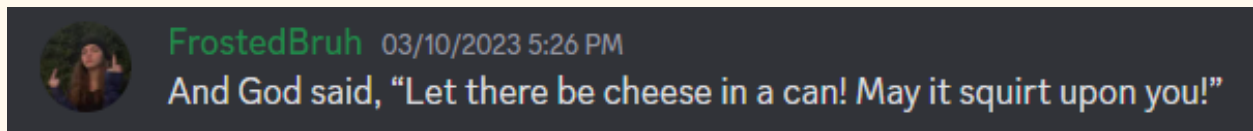

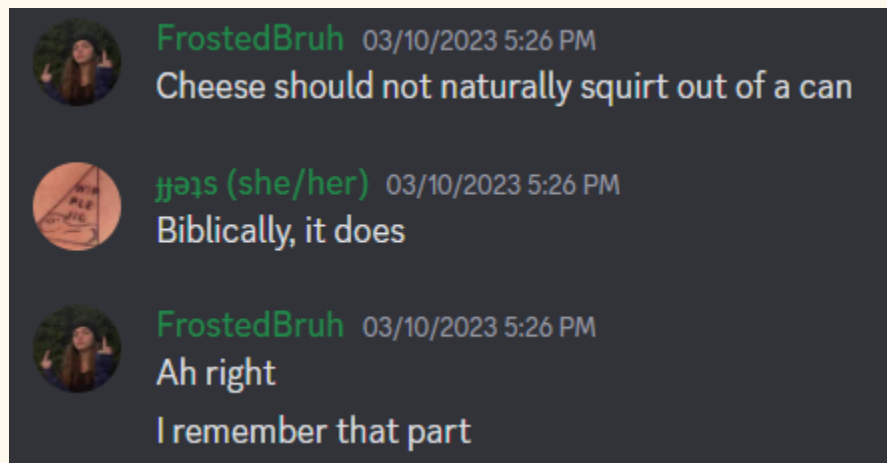

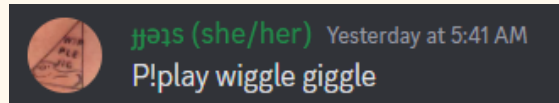

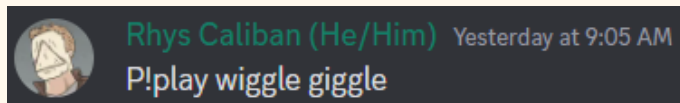

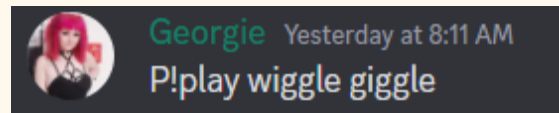

Keep on pantshitting!

WiPPLÉ Doctrine

A collection of BiBLE verses and words of wisdom to live by, as spoken by the Discord Cult of #wipplechat.

Wiggie Giggle by the Mickey Mouse Funhouse Cast has become the official hymn of wipplechat. Day in and day out, wipplechat wiggles and giggles and wiggles some more, even invading the main music channel in the Watsky Discord server and disturbing the peace that exists there if we must. Why, you may ask? As user macabre puts it: Why not?

The music request that started it all.

Our prayer to the WiPPLEJiG.

Lyrics:

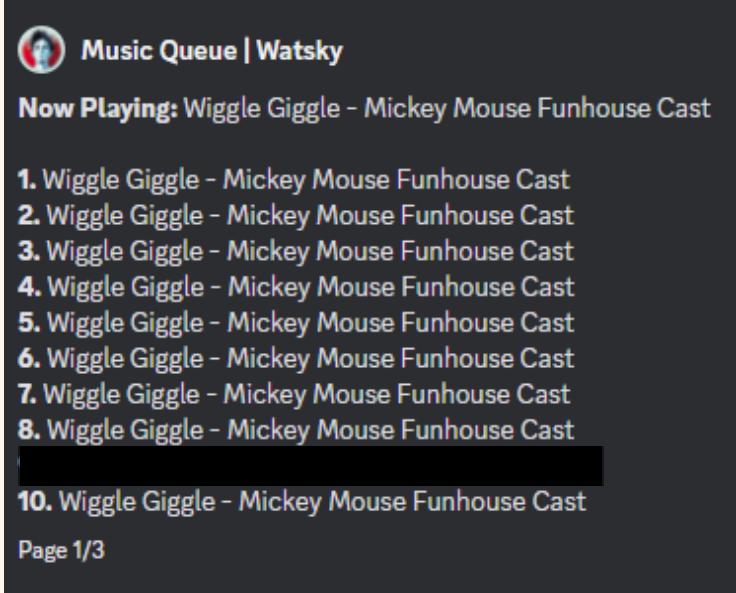

*Let's wiggle 'til we giggle
And we're feeling okay!*

*Wiggle, giggle, wiggle
Wiggle, giggle, wiggle
Wiggle, giggle, giggle, wiggle
Swiggle, wiggle, yay!
(Repeat x2)*

*Kinda silly kinda something back
And wiggle up your day
You can wiggle giggle wiggle
'Til you're feeling okay!*

The 9 WiPPLE Commandments

1. Nothing matters, do it.
2. Bring spare pants*.
3. Slide into DMs.
4. You must continue to wiggle until you giggle.
5. What
6. Huh?
7. Check your mic when entering VC.
8. Everything is a clue.
9. Always WiPPLE before you JiG.

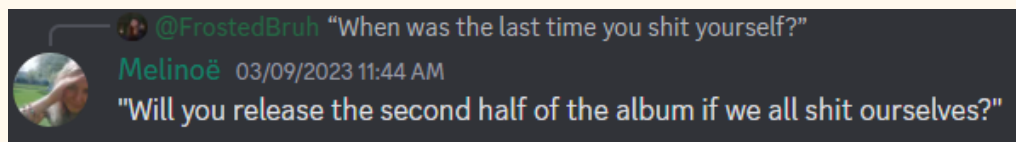

As written by Discord User madsboz.

*Sometimes written as “Thou shalt carry spare pants”. There is some discourse around the correctness of this commandment, with others (FrostedBruh) proclaiming it to be “Thou shalt NOT carry spare pants”.

During the leadup to the Discord AMA, wipplechat was theorizing questions to ask

George Watsky. Thoughtful queries were posited by members of the SHiTPANTS Denomination, but ultimately not asked (presumably to preserve whatever is left of Watsky's sanity).

A dramatized reenactment of the hypothetical Watsky Wednesdays Discord AMA as devised by wipplechat cultists FrostedBruh, bart_neder, joule, Melinoë, and j̄j̄ø̄ts:

Watsky, All-Powerful Being: SPEAK NOW, MY CHILD. BE NOT AFRAID. Actually, BE MORE AFRAID.

Joule: When was the last time you shit yourself?

“And on the eighth day of the third month of our WippleLord, the Prophet opened his mouth, and he spoke: NEXT QUESTION PLEASE.”

Watsky, All-Powerful Being/Prophet: I'm NOT ANSWERING THAT, FOR THE 3RD FUCKIN' TIME.

“Then did the collective famsky cry out as one, their voices risen in unison to declaim but one question in utterance, and that question spake so on the lips of their unified lyrics, a mediocre corpse of a thousand voices all to ask: BRUH when the last time you shit those pants with that dumpy? What that butt do? Have you ever heard of apple skid marks?”
