

The war is nearing its end, the conspiracy revealed, the Federation fractured, and the Archives captured. There are a scant few who have not had their world view completely shaken. One would have had to be living under a rock not to have at least heard of any of this... or in a bunker.

After the bombing of Nishtal as a result of the Battle of Earth, the planet was turned into an uninhabitable wasteland. It is due to this that nobody thought to check for survivors, for the very idea is hard to imagine. Yet, one Krakotl is still down there. Deep in the ruins, lies a fortified bunker meant to keep out any manner of hostiles and detonations.

This Krakotl was always paranoid, and would often secretly work on this bunker in preparation for the end of the world. Despite the PD accusations, they often kept to themselves, with few ever told of their stockpile of supplies.

With no communication with the outside world, it is up to them to figure out what has been going on in the galaxy, and whether it is possible to escape before supplies run out.
