

Define the difference between each pair of words (part of speech, meaning) and write a definition and sentence for each word.

AMORAL IMMORAL

AMOUNT NUMBER

ASSURE ENSURE INSURE

BELIEF BELIEVE

CLOTHES CLOTHS

BREAK
BRAKE

BREATH
BREATHE

COARSE COURSE

EXCEPT ACCEPT

ALTAR ALTER

LATER LATTER

Complete the sentences with the above given words.

Note: 4 words are missing in the sentences. Which ones?

1. I you I meant no harm.
2. Thanks for your attention, but I can't this gift.
3. He bought a gift for everyone me.
4. He never calls me to borrow money.
5. I can better when the air is clean.
6. I you that we will be on time.
7. The in the centre of the church was empty.
8. I can't my luck.
9. Tom is a completely person.
10. You need a certain of nerve to be a teacher.
11. My sister dislikes the language used by many of today's comedians.
12. After the first class, many students decided to drop the
13. I will my car as requested by law.
14. He took a deep and dived into the pool.
15. The of people here, compared to the number here yesterday, is fewer.
16. The media is demoralizing the people's today.
17. Stop looking at Peter's answers. It's
18. The didn't work, so the car crashed.
19. He refused to the way he lived his life.
20. Don't say so. It will my heart.
21. that you have plenty of gas before going on a long trip.
22. the car before your trip.

Idiom:

lead to the altar