Privacy Policy for FlowLedger

Last Updated: March 26, 2025

Introduction

FlowLedger is a personal finance tracking application developed by Blueorb. This Privacy Policy explains how our application handles your information.

Information Storage

FlowLedger is designed to work completely locally on your device:

- All financial data you enter (transactions, categories, amounts) is stored only on your device.
- No data is transmitted to external servers or collected by us.

How Your Information Is Used

All financial data remains locally on your device.

- We do not access or transmit your financial data to external servers.
- We do not share your information with third parties.
- We do not use your data for advertising purposes.

Data Import and Export

FlowLedger allows you to import and export your financial data in JSON format. This feature:

- Enables you to back up your data.
- Allows you to transfer your data between devices.
- Keep your data under your control at all times.

- Does not automatically share your data with any third parties.

Device Permissions

FlowLedger requires the following basic permissions to function properly:

- Storage access: To save and load your financial data, and to enable the import/export functionality.
- No other sensitive permissions are required for the app's core functionality.

Data Storage and Security

- All your financial data is stored locally on your device using Android's standard database system.
- The data is not encrypted but is protected by Android's app isolation security.
- All app data stored within the app is automatically deleted when you uninstall the application.
- Any data you manually export (such as JSON backup files) will remain on your device even after uninstallation.

Third-Party Services

FlowLedger does not use third-party services that collect information about you.

Children's Privacy

Our app is not specifically directed to children under 13. The app does not collect personal information from any users.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page.
