

We Belong Wants You!

Paid Role: Apply to become a We Belong Co-Producer

About us:

We Belong is the UK's first migrant youth-led charity. We believe that young people should be central and active participants in the conversation to create positive, impactful social change. We have a main base in London with a Manchester chapter to advance our work.

We are seeking 3 Co-Producers based in either London or Manchester to help advance our work. Over the last 6 years we have campaigned for shorter routes to settlement for young people who are socially integrated, including welcoming immigration rules that will benefit over 332,000 children and young people.

With your help we can raise awareness of immigration rules and empower young people from migrant backgrounds so that they can regularise their status in the UK. We have a big task ahead of us and would love you to join us on this journey.

Who can apply to become a Co-Producer?

- Young activists between the ages of 18-25 based in either London or Manchester
- Young people with lived experience of migration
- Young people who are committed to social change and already doing work in their communities

Note: If you are interested in campaigning and social action but have no experience, we welcome you to apply

What does being a Co-Producer involve?

Co-producers will be young activists who will work closely with We Belong's Community Engagement Officer to do outreach in London Boroughs so that young migrants know their rights and entitlements. In addition to participating in community meetings, outreach sessions, delivering information and training sessions, Co-producers will also be expected to work alongside staff to assist with organising community events.

As a Co-producer you will be a part of a team of changemakers they will inspire young people with lived experiences of social injustice and assist them in developing their knowledge and skills.

Time commitment and is it a paid role?

Here at We Belong we do not believe in young people working and providing their expertise for free. As a Co-producer you will be expected to commit a maximum of 3.5hrs a week which is 2 days a month time to We Belong's projects at a £15 an hour rate.

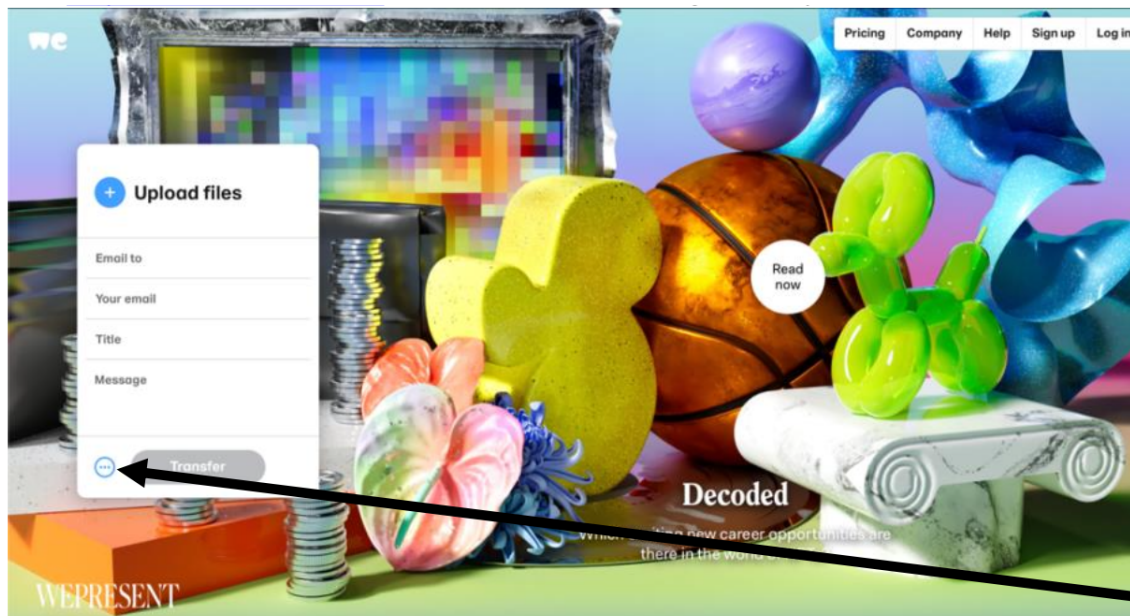

The contract with We Belong will be for 12-months. We Belong will also provide support to process your invoices as well as accountancy support to pay taxes if needed.
