TEA PARTY ADDRESS ON DEFAULT PREVENTION:

To honorable and sensible members of the House and Senate:

R.E.: Responses measured from current debt/deficit plans regarding credit default and interest

<http://teapartychief.blogspot.com/2011/07/7-27-2011-default-prevention-special.html>

you can follow developing opinion of your work on these plans via Facebook polling and vote for yourself: <http://lnk.ms/QbcqZ>

<http://www.facebook.com/home.php?sk=question&id=143755192373017&q&ref=qts>

After analyzing the Reid Plan and the Reid-Boehner compromise, as critiqued by the CBO, I released "The Synthesis" early, our weekly Tea Party circular to give everyone access to the information instead of media sound bytes and pleas from worried politicians. I have had more than 60 views on my blog since yesterday morning, and the circular reaches 20,000 from my email log and Facebook groups, not counting resharing or Twitter. This topic has generated such interest in what was said in this newsletter, that it has had more views than any topic I've posted in nearly two years.

I urge members of both bodies to not vote for either plan, as they do not make enough cuts to address the “$1.7 trillion debt supercycle/interest” in raising the debt ceiling. While these plans may stay our credit rating, it will be jeopardized again, and rather quickly as of next Spring. I do not see the debt ceiling as a singular issue, when it is a mute point when we have already hit our head, and the interest is already accruing.

However, I do feel to avoid default on 8-2-2011, we must:

1) Pass an emergency contingency measure to appropriate what is necessary to avoid default.

- This will not only buy us time to meet and compromise more, but it will give us time to vote on all the plans to preserve the credit rating without sacrificing it to political stalemate tactics and delays.

2) We must then consider up or down votes on the 6 plans, to be fair to all sides.

- The Biden Commission/Plan only cuts $1.3 trillion - not enough to even present a vote to the floor, but we can give it a floor vote like the rest.
- The Reid Plan cuts $2.2 trillion but spends $2.7 trillion, [so it only cuts $.5 trillion], it protects the credit rating but it certainly not enough to avoid the interest of the “$1.7 trillion debt supercycle/interest” in raising the debt ceiling. The caps don’t go far enough either, the promise to cap rather than designate what will be capped, when we shouldn’t have any new spending in a deficit.
- The Boehner-Reid Compromise plan cuts $2.7 trillion, spends $2.5 trillion, which protects the credit rating but only cuts $.2 trillion; which is not enough! The problem is getting an agreement to make the Balanced Budget Amendment a Constitutional Amendment. There are concerns about rule changes, who would be on the Deficit Reduction Committee, and the caps go too far to get the votes when they are too generalized.
- THE GANG OF SIX PLAN - CUTS $4.3 TRILLION OVER 10YRS., INCREASES REVENUE OF $1 TRILLION IN EXCHANGE FOR CUTS: MEDICARE, MEDICAID, AND SOCIAL SECURITY, ADHERING TO A $3 FOR $1 OF TAXPAYER REVENUE REDUCTION IN SPENDING TO OFFSET INTEREST. THE COMPROMISE WAS TAX REFORM.
- THE RYAN PLAN - CUTS $6.2 TRILLION, INCREASES REVENUE $1.5 TRILLION, ADDRESSES THE INTEREST AND ROOT CAUSE OF CREDIT DEFAULT MECHANISMS, PASSED THE HOUSE FOR 2012 BUDGET: The Path to Prosperity will help create nearly one million new private-sector jobs next year, bring the unemployment rate down to 4% by 2015, and result in 2.5 million additional private-sector jobs in the last year of the decade. It spurs economic growth, with $1.5 trillion in additional real GDP over the decade. According to Heritage's analysis, it would result in $1.1 trillion in higher wages and an average of $1,000 in additional family income each year.

- THE COBURN PLAN - CUTS $9 TRILLION, TAKES US BACK TO PRE-OBAMA LEVELS OF DEBT AND INTEREST, BUT CUTS TOO MUCH TOO SOON, IT REDUCES GOVERNMENT 20% WHEN WE NEED 10% REDUCTION NOW, AND 5X THE JOB CREATION !!

If a vote occurs today in the House and Senate, I urge members to go ahead and take a stand to support the Boehner-Reid Compromise, and for members to vote against the Reid Plan. This would clear 2 votes out of the way for the 6 plans, to shorten the amount of time that has been wasted and pave the way to greater compromise and consideration of plans we actually want and need.

I support and endorse the Gang of Six Bipartisan Plan. It compromises with both parties, has enough cuts, addresses revenue, deals with inflation, and it doesn't cut too much too soon, and it is the only plan Obama said that he would not veto because it contains elements of tax reform.

Until he is impeached, veto is still a threat undermining Cut, Cap, and Balance, the Balanced Budget Amendment, or any other initiatives by GOP and Tea Party to bring deeper cuts to address the interest accumulating on the deficit.

Thank you for taking these opinions from taxpayers into timely consideration,
Ms. Aja Brooks
GA Tea Party Chief

This is what we're looking for: even if it meant including an emergency appropriations bill in the wings to stay default, and this compromise addresses the interest of what imperiled us to begin with: having to cough $1.7 trillion in cuts to pay for it, and this agrees to that. It also puts cuts to committee and a separate vote on BBA. Reid did not force his version that struck BBA, did not make enough cuts to address interest, or refuse to continue to make cuts like before.

Laura Bell It's starting to look like Congress really wants to show American's that they have the leverage to bring us under control. Threatening not to pay Medicare, SS, Disability, and the military is pretty much most of America. This is very sinister and sadistic to threaten the very people that have literally given their lives to protect and save this country and put them in office.

The real problem is No Labels was founded in response to the popularity and success of the Tea Party People (not really a party yet). We currently have one party and it is those in Power that work both sides of the fence to stay in Power. Can you imagine Harry Reid would ever give up and give in and take the tax increases or revenue increases out of a serious Democratic approach to a Budget Agreement??? Can you imagine Mitch McConnell caving in and surrendering when it comes to spending reductions and a grand bargain???? These fellows do as they have for 35 years...they play the American public for a bunch of suckers and they give in here and there as long as they both ALWAYS retain the POWER! During the last election it looked like they both got fooled and underestimated the Power of the People and a "Real bunch of Americans" that believe in American exceptionalism, pride, history, self determination and, oh by the way, a Real Smaller Federal Government; thus a small ripple turned into a great sunami and the rising tide lifted the boat people (we the people) up into a position of power. Not enough power to take over, at least not for now, but enough power to impact the One Party System of Power Brokers that have ruled and swung back and forth like a pendulum just enough to keep the people in check and subservient to the leaders' whimsical fancies. Well, now my Fellow Americans... the No Label people who are a part of the One Party System got real scared of the looming prospect of a second, and even greater, sunami in 2012. They became so afraid that they once again came up with a Lame Idea to join arms and get in lock step with one another to defeat the radical, racially charged, granny killing, bible thumping, gun toting, right wing extremists... however, they forgot that the few people (the Real Americans) the RADICALS had put into Power had "just enough Power" to make a dent in the process that was once totally controlled by the likes of Harry and Mitch and their Minions. They forgot that the few people (the Real Americans) the RACIALLY CHARGED had put into Power had "just enough power" to stand up to the One Party Power Brokers during debt and deficit negotiations. They forgot that the few people (the Real Americans) the tried and true believers of the American Way had put into power had "just enough Power" to fight for another day and another year and they will continue to man the boats through 2012. American citizens...HEAR ME NOW!!! Draw YOUR "line in the sand" as was done at the Alamo!!! Take up the fight against all those Power Brokers that toss you tidbits and pander to your good and decent human senses and then double cross you with another of their lame stream ideas that lead you, your children, your brothers and your sisters, and yes even your dieing granny down a path of deeper debt and prosperity destruction. Let them know you will be (the Real American) that has "Just Enough Power" in 2012 to create a new and very different Second Party that will lead our country back to American Exceptionalism and a Smaller Federal Government. "Just Enough Power" today, tomorrow and into the future. "Just Enough Power" to make you a strong, independent, and proud American. It is not too late for YOU to Make a Difference... Man the Boats!!!!

JUST WHAT EXACTLY IS OUR GOAL AS THE TEA PARTY IN LIGHT OF THE 2011 BUDGET CONTROL ACT AND RELATED LEGISLATION?

MY PREDICTION WAS THAT IF WE DID NOT REPEAL H.R. 4872, THAT WITH THE INTEREST ON THE DEFICIT, UNEMPLOYMENT TRENDS AND OTHER ECONOMIC PROBLEMS WE WOULD BE COMPLETELY DESTITUTE WITHIN 30-50 YEARS, AND IF WE DID NOT ADDRESS THE INTEREST OF THE DEBT SUPERCYCLE/GOVERNMENT DEFAULT, THIS COULD HASTEN IT IN AS LITTLE AS 7 YEARS !!!

NATIONAL DEBT 2011-2021

$14.29
trillion

WHILE WE CONTINUED TO FINANCE THE GOVERNMENT UNTIL NEXT SPRING, WHAT MOST DO NOT REALIZE IS THAT SINCE THE VALUE OF THE DOLLAR IS ONLY WORTH HALF, THEN WE ARE BORROWING $500 BILLION, IT'S LIKE WE MUST PAY BACK THAT $500 BILLION BACK TWICE, AND THEN THERE IS THE INTEREST ON THAT AMOUNT:

DEFAULT WOULD HAVE SKYROCKETED OUR INTEREST RATES. SO FOR EVERY $500 BILLION WE BORROW THAT WE DIDN'T HAVE TO BEGIN WITH, WE ARE PAYING FOR IT DOUBLY WITH INTEREST, AND COMBINED WITH THE FACT THAT THE DOLLAR IS ONLY WORTH HALF WHILE THE CHART DOESN'T SEEM LIKE MUCH, IMAGINE IN 7 YEARS WHAT INTEREST PROBLEMS WE WOULD HAVE HAD WITH DEFAULT.

THERE ARE SEVERAL THINGS THAT CONTRIBUTED TO THE THREAT OF DEFAULT, THAT I ADDRESSED LAST YEAR IN THE LEGISLATION I COMPOSED.....

https://docs.google.com/document/d/14bDVSP5N-1ICEjOWAu0WZ4z1mN3ERAAUfOZqavpSAwc/edit?hl=en_US

Why is this a jobless recovery with 25 million people out of work? It's because of uncertainty about the Reconciliation Act of 2010:

PROPOSITION FOR A REPEAL BILL _____ TO REPLACE H.R. 4872:

While Obama is definitely right about the urgency to tackle health reform, (as costs are exorbitantly high and we have no program for the uninsured), if we do not create a program to cover the uninsured or reform health care, we will add another $3 trillion to the deficit! The cost of not reforming health care over the next decade will double, adding half of the current deficit, to the $13 trillion dollar deficit, and if we do nothing about it now, half of the deficit by 2020 is projected to be nothing but health care debt: created by 20 years of unwise Congressional spending and legislation, a whopping $20 trillion dollars in the red!

It is not enough to say to the Federal Reserve to print more money for a bailout when the cost of food and gas are inflated, and since we're a global economy that enjoys fiat, meaning that the American dollar is the only currency that is backed by the government who can write own notes, and while this is a supreme position of financial power and financial and influence, this also makes us vulnerable to attack from other countries who covet our position and status. Essentially, if you control the value of the American dollar, by buying up gold, property, or investments backed by gold, you have the power to control the global economy, and depending on how much you have, it's like using reigns on a horse. The more wealth you have, the more you control sectors of society, like strings of puppets. I have seen Obama depicted as Puppet Master, but the true Master of Money is the person who is the wealthiest in gold, American property, and investments. While it is true that Obama has written a lot of blank checks, in 2004 it was estimated that the government has 261,007,000,000 ounces of gold/$2,800 per ounce, so the gold value was $730,819,600,000 with $733,170,953,704 American dollars in circulation, which leaves $730,086,429,046,296, or about $730 trillion dollars in reserve.

If we were to sell off our gold to pay down the deficit, the United States is only then worth around $700 trillion dollars. With our current financial problems and people being unemployed, the government is not collecting any real tax revenue from 25 million people over the past 2-3yrs. Qualified unemployment recipients who receive $800 per month cost the government $20,000,000,000/$20 billion per month, and in one year $240,000,000,000/$240 billion, so for 3yrs. of unemployment that comes to an ungodly $720,000,000,000/$720 billion dollars, which by the end of this year will add $1 trillion to the deficit! The government can't tax it's own money, or make enough back off of taxes from unemployment checks, as it was a government pay-out to begin with! The government gives out close to $1 trillion and gets back only 1/10. The government is essentially loaning out money that was paid in by taxpayers, getting $100,000,000,000/$100 billion in revenue back for $1 trillion paid out.

Continuing this disastrous trend with unemployment will add to the deficit at nearly the same rate as the health care debt, which would put the projected deficit to then $25 trillion. Within the next 30-50 years, just with unemployment pay-outs and health care costs, the deficit will consume the entire value of gold that backs the U.S. dollar, and we'll be penniless and gold-less, and we'll have no capital to loan or be able to loan to other countries! Whoever buys our gold will essentially be buying our debt! Even if we used the tax revenue generated off of unemployment checks, that $100 billion, and bought gold with it, we would only add $35 million and some back, which won't make but $142 million over the next 12 years to offset trillions of dollars spent on unemployment and health care!

So folks, this is where the rubber meets the road: health care has been so high that people have been having to choose between their health or having a roof over their head, a car to drive, and food in their stomachs. This is the main reason the I.R.S. disagrees with Obama's wage control plan to levy the taxes to pay for health care, as even the I.R.S. knows that even if you took in more taxes to pay for a new health care program for the uninsured, Obama's legislation fails to deal with the costs of MEDICARE/MEDICAID rising, along with private sector premiums and out-of-pocket costs, so the money it costs to treat the uninsured being used as tax write-offs for hospitals would only address one kink in the hose, like putting a band-aid on a gaping wound that really needs stitches: there are 25 million unemployed who may or may not return to work, but there are really 3 groups of people who make up the uninsured bracket of society. Illegals make up 12 million, 10 million Americans don't have any insurance, and the other 25 million will get insurance at another job when they return to work or the ones who remain unemployed will be dropped from COBRA. Those who are insured now pay 8% higher premiums, as the hospitals charge insurance companies a percentage to offset the cost of operation for treating those not insured. Now with higher unemployment, insurance companies have jacked up their rates because of a lower pool for their policy.

The question is, why has universal care not worked for MA? MA is now carrying a deficit, against federal law, as universal care does not cover the cost of disability or address the costs of the aging population. MA's premiums only went down $230 per year/per person, with much higher taxes, running a deficit, AND they STILL put disability appropriations on the chopping block, though that still didn't stop their deficit or really improve care, lower premium costs substantially, or even offset medical costs to balance their budget. Universal care just shuffles federal money out around the state, and it fails to deal with the cost issues of elderly care or special needs. Which is why C.B.O. numbers are b.s.!

Keeping all of these things in mind of what we can't keep doing and what has proven not to work, we can't just do it Obama's way to our country's own undoing! America will meet her demise at Obama's hand if we blindly follow him like sheep to the slaughter! We are to be wise as serpents, but harmless as doves, and while we've got to reform health care and do it N-O-W, even tort reform won't stop this health care abyss!

As a lobbyist in GA in over the past 8 months, I have conferred with Republicans to give approval to fund H.R. 3200, H.R. 3400, H.R. 1200 (striking the mandate clause), and H.R. 3962 with much revision. I addressed committee members to agree to compromise with health care reform, and I garnered Republican concession to accept passage of 3 Democrats' bills to their 1 bill, with the condition that H.R. 3590 be tabled until it could be revised to address cost issues effectively. The bill was so bad, it was written by Rangel, and it was determined in committee to be a conflict of interest, and I actually believe that Obama was so jealous that I prompted legislators to support this compromise, that it trumped anything he'd ever done in 10yrs. voting present in the Senate, so he refused to have Pelosi support convening on H.R. 3590, which would've gotten the bill thrown out entirely over ethical challenge, and he took it upon himself to write another version of it, H.R. 4872/the Recon. Act of 2010, and they used deem and pass to usurp the will of the American people, as the majority of Americans rejected it, as the majority of Americans rejected insurance mandating, federal funding of abortion, cutting $500 billion from from MEDICARE, and funding Thomson prison to house terrorists with pharmaceutical contracts for generic pills to medicate everyone into compliance, (to get them hooked on pills so they need an insurance contract!) I suggest you read the legislation for yourself, and all you have to do is read the first 150 pgs. of H.R. 4872 to see how the health care law is interpreted and will be applied in conjunction with the other bills, which sucks!

We must repeal H.R. 4872 for those reasons listed above, as those are legitimate concerns that revoke Obama's promise of insuring the uninsured. None of that legislation pays for itself... where is the money coming from --- a $13 trillion dollar deficit?! Cutting $500 billion from MEDICARE will only make MEDICARE costs skyrocket and appropriate $500 billion divided by 47 million uninsured is like the government paying one $10 copay for a general doctor visit, and that's it! Plus if abortion funding is not struck, that will cost $3 billion or more per year! I worked on revising this health care legislation for 3 months straight, so much so, I felt my legs were shackled to my parents' computer desk. I would spend up to 18 hours a day some days on the computer, reading bills over 2,000 pages long, making revisions, and then taking an hour to email the entire Senate and an entire day to email the House of Representatives. I made a promise to investors to protect the stock market from this legislation, I promised business owners who were still left that taxes wouldn't close down their business in this unprofitable economy, and I promised Obama I would turn over every abortion clinic for misappropriation if an amendment was not passed.

While I became certain we could not reform health care Obama's way and that the law needs to be repealed before it becomes budgetary law before August 9th, 2010, I see that neither the Dems or Repubs know how to fix the problems that they've created and failed to govern judiciously, both sides offering inadequate solutions, with Dems offering the most undesirable solution that they're forcing everyone to do, though their reckless spending and tripling the deficit in less than 2yrs. has increased the desperation that has made health care reform a 9-1-1 emergency! It's weird: instead of doing their jobs to govern wisely, they've spent all of our tax dollars and then used that as the very reason to tax us more and pass more legislation that will tax us to death! Obama gave out a lot of money, but he didn't tell you he'd try to recoup it with 4 new taxes on the middle class!

I was sure that repealing the bill would prevent further economic disaster, and selling insurance across state lines would help everyone, but no one had a vision of what the future American health care should look like, until I read “Why Our Health Matters” by Andrew Weil, M.D. In this book, Weil establishes medical standards that come from years of experience in conventional and non-conventional medicine, and a blue print for a system that will work in favor of the health of our nation, with health equaling wealth! It also gives a structural delegation of duties that will accomplish what Obama’s czar disciples can’t do, as a small group overseeing the entire state of the American public health. While Weil’s book was loaded with reliable facts, figures, history, and even structural system reform, it still did not tell how to measurably bring cost down or how to implement technology for our benefit to be cost effective. However, this book inspired me to discuss it with my peers, and while some are still holding out hope for Social Security, I have my own legislation to bring to the table. It’s very simple, I wrote it on half a sheet of paper with a marker, but I guarantee that it’s better than anything Obama, Congress, or the I.R.S. thought of to rectify cost issues. The C.B.O. can estimate that costs may go down some, but the C.B.O. can’t tell us how to get there or how to walk it out; however, I can.

I, Aja Brooks, would like to introduce a bill _____ for a National Health Insurance Plan, outsourced to _____. The purpose of this bill is to provide insurance for the uninsured, in the event their state has no program in their budget, or if they can’t attain MEDICAID or have been rejected by other private sector insurance companies. Monthly insurance premiums will be federally subsidized, as optional health coverage available through selecting an additional withholding on your W-4/corresponding tax forms. A National Health Advisory Council will be in charge of overseeing this program, who will interact with State Insurance Commissioners and _____ outsourced insurance company. The National Health Advisory Council will not be a government position; doctors will submit a recommendation to a Senate committee nominating 10 most qualified doctors or influential health professionals from their field. The 10 most nominated will be the council. The Council will establish a Constitution to uphold the Hippocratic Oath and establish its own rules for terms of service and rules of operation.

The I.R.S. expansion will remain the same as in H.R. 4872, but the I.R.S. will have 3 new departments: wage division, premium division, and records division. The I.R.S. will do what it does best, collecting and recording accurate monetary and related information, and they will do so by using the taxpayer ID# as a person’s National Health Insurance number. This way, the I.R.S. will be able to easily assess and collect information having to review and substantiate gazillions of 1099 forms, and without having to harass or hunt people down, the I.R.S. would be the only entity to have access to private medical data through use of the Tax ID number, which will track and compile medical data as soon as we add it for hospitals to submit it for billing/tax purposes.

The I.R.S. will analyze all Tax ID claims, those who have opted-in to National Health Insurance, and track the costs to those under other insurance, and also track the costs of those who refuse health insurance and compile it for an annual report for Congress. Congress could then accurately assess medical costs, with the I.R.S. curtailing fraud, and simplify billing for hospitals for those who can't pay their bills. The computer system will work for Tax ID number only, to eradicate those who don't pay taxes/to clearly count taxpayers' contributions, in order to address illegal immigration as a separate cost issue that amnesty would not rectify. Billing pages will say NO TAX ID NUMBER/employer address for those who are illegal or employer tax ID#.

The I.R.S. and government can't oversee every minute financial transaction to ensure taxes are being properly reported and not misrepresented, but they can more fairly tax, properly appropriate, and identify fraud easier with improved and accurate TAX-ID data based info. That way, it would be easier to extend tax cuts or credits to those who have large medical bills, and give a stimulus check to those who stay in good health and aren't abusing their body or the system.

Funding for the new I.R.S. data base Tax ID# health information will cost_____. All health care providers must participate or license to practice will be revoked. Records must be submitted when patient information is taken in for admission or appointment.

Those who receive Social Security checks or unemployment checks have the option to opt-in on their forms by asking for additional withholding. This bill extends coverage to those under-insured, most of the uninsured who receive government checks, and those who are unemployed will be added to their yearly federal income taxes/that will be offset when they become employed and file their W-4 over again.

This bill excludes illegal immigrants, for the National Health Insurance Plan, as they do not possess a TAX ID number unless they are claimed as a dependent under an optional employer withholding for workman's compensation insurance only, once we can accurately assess medical costs by TAX ID #, then we can effectively determine the costs and amount of medical services used by illegals, as to levy a tax of 3%, or require an ID card where they must pay 10% sales tax. The I.R.S. and ICE will partner to manage those claims filed that have the listing as NO TAX ID NUMBER, and the I.R.S. will determine legal work status and recommend deportation if necessary. If an illegal needs care, they must put their employer's TAX ID NUMBER on the claim, so that withholding can be investigated by the I.R.S., and if they do not work, the spouse or head of household must disclose the employer's TAX ID#.

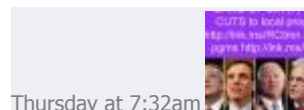

While this bill is just a simple readjustment of how we do things, it may be amended or modified to fit legislative language and action as appropriate.

Hypocrisy Alert: Michele Bachmann is a Welfare Queen

August 2, 2011

By Michael Hayne

 Share / Save

Occasional human being, and Republican presidential candidate, Michele Bachmann perpetually touts the sorely misguided notion that all federal monies are allotted to freeloading bums who lack the Protestant work ethic—and light pigmentation—that comes with it. Yet, much like with everything with today's pretend Republican Senators or Congresspeople, it ultimately boils down to “do as I poorly say, not as I do.” Much like her idiot sister from another mother in Alaska, Bat Sh*t Bachmann is a leading recipient of dirty taxpayer money. Most recently, the Washington Post uncovered a $417,000 federally-subsidized loan from Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to help purchase a luxury house even as she was shrieking for the Mortgage giants to be dismantled. Of course Bachmann has been a consistently fierce critic of mortgage lending programs and has gone so far as to suggest abolishing the government sponsored mortgage enterprises (GSEs) Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. But that certainly didn't stop the female overlord of Kookistan from taking out the maximum possible loan from those programs to finance her family's move to a lavish 5,200-square-foot home on a golf course. After all, one simply cannot read the bible without encountering all the passages about Jesus being an avid golfer. Naturally, Bachmann gave an explanation worthy of late-nite fodder (sorry Obama stimulus jokes) during an appearance this afternoon at the National Press Club.

*MODERATOR: I got a lot of questions from people asking is it fair for you to call for dismantling federal programs you ultimately have been a beneficiary of? So in terms of guaranteeing home mortgages, do you think the federal government has a role in that...? BACHMANN: Now unlike all of you, who I'm sure pay cash for your homes, there are people out there like myself who actually have to go to a bank and get a mortgage. And this is the problem. It's almost impossible to buy a home in this country today without the federal government being involved. Whether it is with the FHA, whether it's with Fannie, whether it's with Freddie, it's almost impossible to buy a home...What's important is that we do dismantle a number of these federal programs that everyone agrees are clearly out of control.

Very indeed so, Bachmann. All us Americans (especially those greedy Kindergarten teachers) do is use cash to purchase gold plated homes and spend our remaining days burning hundred-dollar bills in the roaring fireplace. Now if you're not a Teabagger, thus having more than two brain cells, who can forget how Bachmann received thousands of dollars in farm subsidies and $137,000 in Medicaid payments to deeply closeted Marcus Bachmann's gay therapy clinic? And now the home loan?! One might even go so far as to say that Bachmann belongs to the church of Trinity Hypocrisy. The insane clown posse that makes up today's Republican Party most certainly opposes large government, but only when it comes to groups they simply don't like, such as blacks, gays, women, working class, etc. Edited By: Alexis Atherton (Visited 1,522 times, 1,522 visits today)

2 new reports cast further doubt on image White House released

Detailed technical analysis of the PDFfile the White House released April 27 indicates it is not a scan of the original document, as claimed by the White House, but instead is the final form of an electronic file used to forge the birth certificate on Adobe software, according to reports by experts.

Failure to demonstrate how a simple computer scan can produce the effects observed in the Obama birth certificate PDF lends support to arguments that the Obama birth certificate is a forgery, the experts contend.

OBOTs jump to defend Obama birth certificate

The radical Obama supporters known as OBOTs have repeatedly asserted that experts cited by WND have ignored evidence that the effects observed in the White House-released PDF can be explained by utilizing various tools, such as running Optical Character Recognition (OCR) software and by optimizing the PDF.

Jerome Corsi's book, "Where's the Birth Certificate?" is available for immediate shipping, autographed by the author, only from the WND Superstore

Frank Arduini, an OBOT who works at CareFusion and frequently posts argumentative pro-Obama comments on WND forums, made the charge in a recent WND-published article, as seen in Exhibit 1.

Exhibit 1: OBOT poster accuses WND of ignoring evidence

Arduini's LinkedIn.com profile lists him as an IT Business Partner at the health industries company CareFusion, headquartered in San Diego.

Kevin Davidson, who posts under the alias "Dr. Conspiracy," wrote the article referenced by Arduini, entitled "The Doc got layers," posted July 9 on Davidson's blog, ObamaConspiracy.org.

Davidson is retired from Netsmart Technologies, an information technologies company whose business includes providing assistance in vital records management to state organizations.

In an email to WND, Davidson professed that he never worked with the state of Hawaii and his former employer never had a vital records contract with the state.

He further stated that his Obama Conspiracy blog is "a personal hobby" that "was never connected to my employment."

Neither Arduini nor Davidson have demonstrated an ability to replicate what is observed in the Obama birth certificate PDF by scanning a document and utilizing optimization techniques.

Two White House PDF birth certificate files released

Various observers have pointed out that more than one PDF file was released by the White House, as noted in Exhibit 2.

The archiveindex version is 3289 bytes longer, has a creation date on the 27th, has an additional modified date on the 28th, the format of the header, trailer and the dates has also changed.

Either the archiveindex.com version is not an original and has been modified and resaved, or the Whitehouse changed versions on the 28th and then changed back to the first version they made available sometime after the 28th.

The White House has never acknowledged or explained why two different PDF versions of the Obama birth certificate were filed on the White House website.

Created in Adobe software?

According to both versions of the Obama birth certificate PDF, the metadata embedded in the PDF file documents that the PDF was created in Macintosh Preview on an Apple computer using the MacOSX operatingsystem.

Exhibit 3 presents the metadata from the White House website, with the lines identifying the Apple computer and software highlighted in red.

Exhibit 3: Metadata from White House released Obama birth certificate PDF file

Read more: Experts say Obama certificate not scan of original document<http://www.wnd.com/?pageId=329221#ixzz1U387iez2>

Because the PDF metadata contained no references to Adobe software, many Obama supporters have argued that AdobeIllustrator or Photoshop were not used in the creation of the PDF file.

WND has obtained a technical analysis from a computer software expert who demonstrates conclusively that a document created in Adobe Illustrator or Photoshop can be read into Preview.

Further, Preview can be used to save the file as a PDF. In the process, all metadata from the Adobe software is eliminated in the new metadata file created for the resulting PDF. Moreover, when the Preview-created PDF file is read into Adobe Illustrator, the layers used to create the electronic file in Adobe Illustrator or Photoshop are visible, even though the PDF metafile does not document the Adobe software manipulations used to create the file.

Initially, when "Derek's file" was found in the metadata of the White House-released PDF, various posters on the Internet suspected the identity of the person within the White House who made the file.

At the time, computer software experts suspected Derek Noonburg held the patent on the version of PDF built into Mac Preview.

After an email exchange with WND, Noonburg posted on his website that he did not own that particular patent and that it was his suspicion "Derek's file" referred to the person who wrote the PDF generation software built into MacOSX.

WND has verified that "Derek's file" does appear in PDF files created with Mac Preview on the MacOSX operating system and is not related to any individual working within the White House.

The complete analysis showing that the White House-released PDF could have been created in Adobe Illustrator or Photoshop software can be read here

"Whether the source file came from a scanner or was created in Adobe is unclear," the expert concluded. "Based on that fact, the 'digital chain of custody' of this document is unknown and the integrity of the data is unknowable from a technical perspective.

"Any number of processes and applications could have been used on this document between the time it was scanned and the time it was converted to its final PDF form."

The computer software expert asked to remain anonymous, because much of his work comes from Adobe, and writing a report suggesting the Obama birth certificate is a fraud could be harmful to his career.

White House PDF not run with OCR

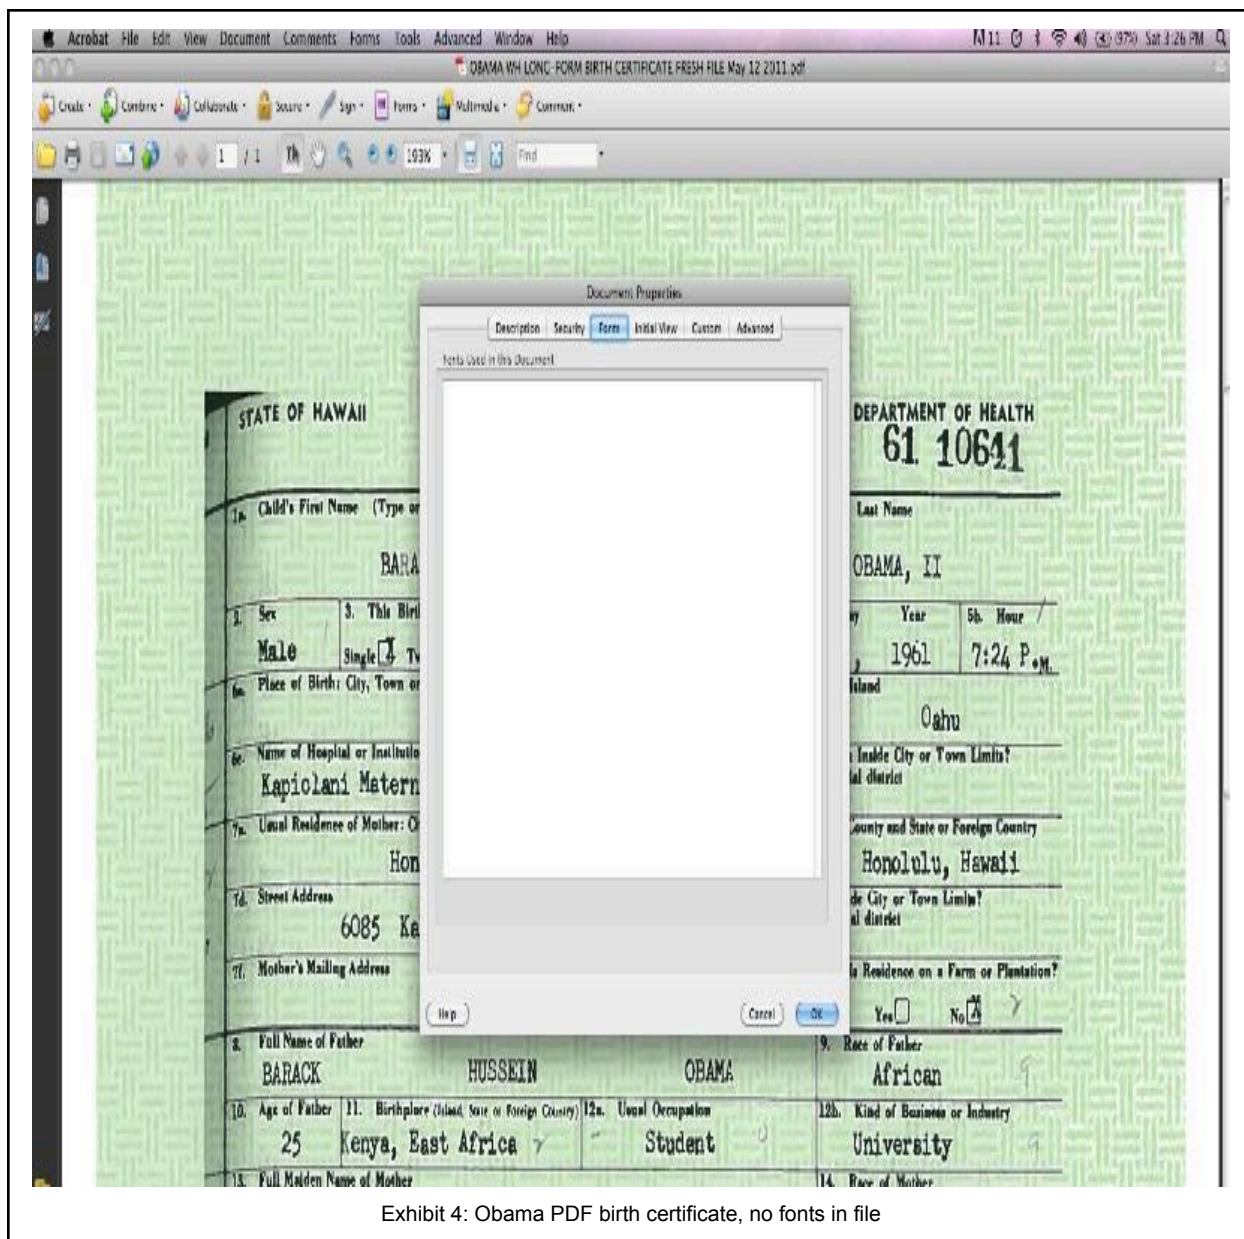

A second computer software expert has submitted to WND a report, seen here in its entirety, that concludes the White House-released PDF could have been created in Adobe Illustrator or Photoshop, even if the final PDF was created by Mac Preview on an Apple computer using the MacOSX operating system.

This expert also insisted on remaining anonymous, fearing retaliation from Adobe or the Adobe community.

Typically, Obama supporters have observed that effects such as the multiple layers easily seen in the Obama PDF file through Adobe Illustrator were caused by optimizing the file with Optical Character Recognition software.

This second technical report concludes OCR software was not run on the White House-released PDF, because the file has no information in the "Fonts" field of the "Properties" tab when it is examined in Adobe Acrobat, as seen in Exhibit 4.

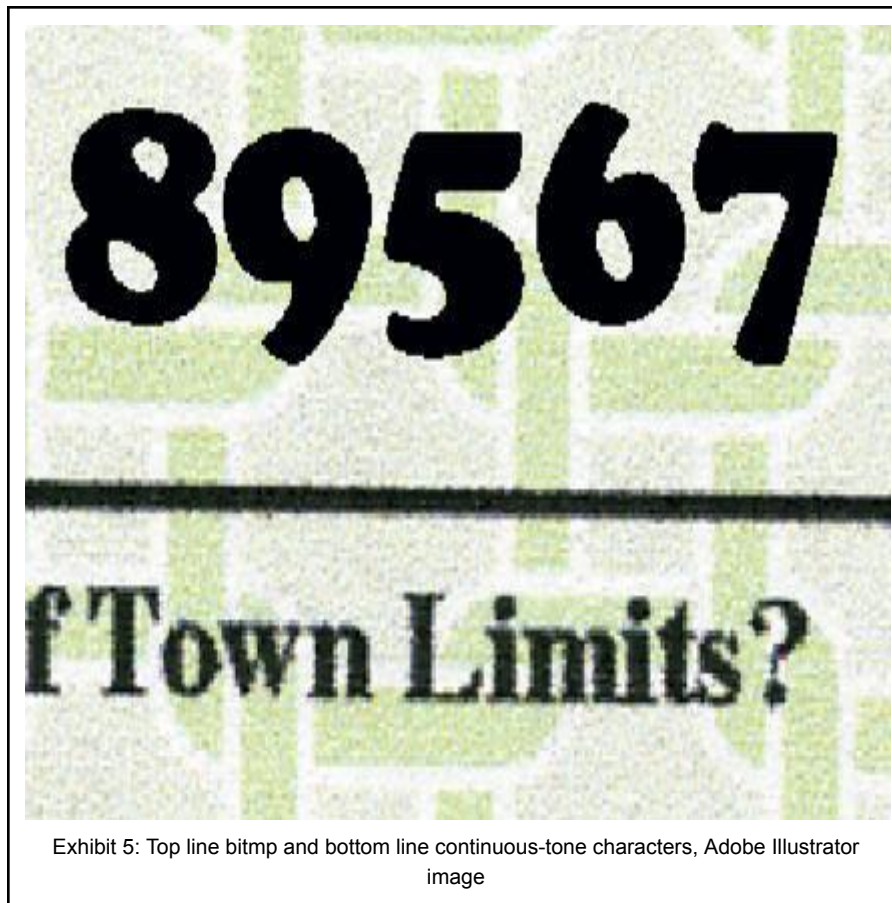

The point is that OCR software is designed to read words in an electronic file into a table so that the words can be manipulated by word-processing software. Failure to generate fonts in the White House-released PDF is evidence OCR software was not run on the file, the expert argues.

The analysis also rejects the contention that the combination of bitmap and continuous-tone letters in the Obama PDF was caused by optimization.

"The only way I have been able to replicate the piecemeal nature of the birth certificate (some continuous-tone content, some bitmap content) is by combining bitmap and continuous-tone images in Adobe Illustrator," the expert concludes.

In Exhibit 5, the small text, horizontal line and green pattern are all one continuous tone;

the 89567 numerals were saved from Photoshop as a bitmap TIFF image; the images were combined in Illustrator.

"I then saved the Illustrator file as an Adobe PDF, opened that PDF in Apple's Preview application and printed to PDF," the expert explains. "That approach comes closest to matching the attributes of the birth certificate PDF: bitmap plus continuous-tone content, some vector content, no embedded fonts and the Preview application stamp."

The expert concludes that the White House-released PDF was not a simple scan, as represented by the White House.

"I can only speculate on what's been done to produce the file as we see it," the expert writes. "But, in my opinion, the supplied PDF is not a pristine scan simply enveloped in a PDF wrapper. It's been touched by other processes."

Optimized layers differ in appearance

Following expert advice, WND scanned an authentic birth certificate issued March 15, 2011, by the Hawaii Department of Health, a little more than a month before the Obama PDF birth certificate was issued.

The document was scanned into Adobe Acrobat and run through OCR software.

The resulting document was opened in Adobe Illustrator.

Exhibit 6 confirms the March 15 document after being run through OCR only produces what appears to be two layers.

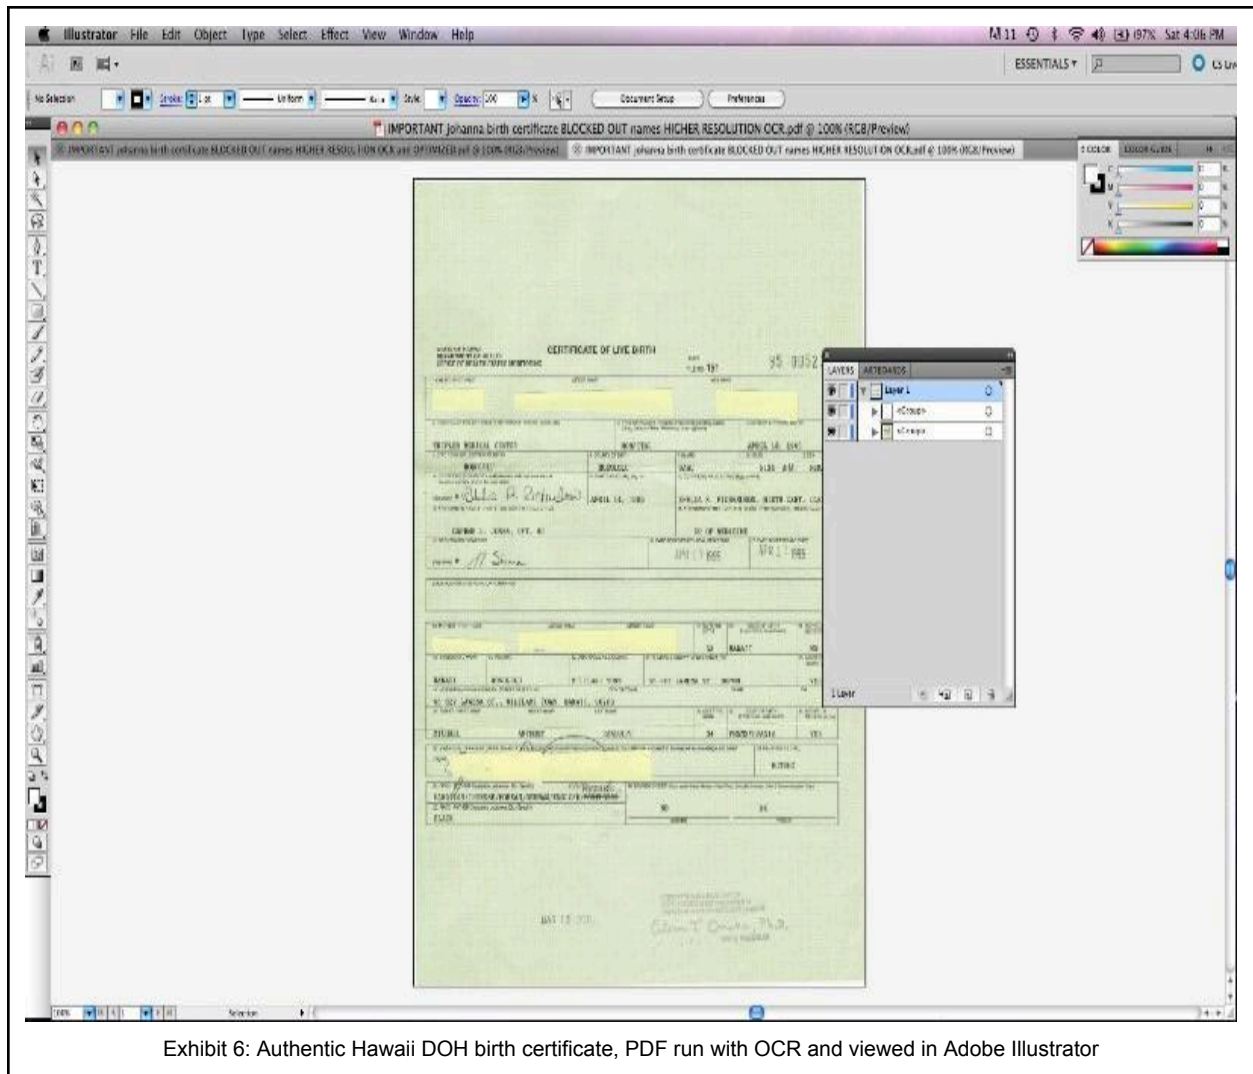

Exhibit 6: Authentic Hawaii DOH birth certificate, PDF run with OCR and viewed in Adobe Illustrator

When the second layer is switched off, the entire document disappears, indicating that OCR software alone does not contain the type of multiple layers observable in the Obama birth certificate PDF when viewed in Adobe Illustrator.

Next, the authentic Hawaii DOH birth certificate issued March 15 was run through OCR and optimized.

Exhibit 7 confirms that this process creates multiple layers when the document is viewed in Adobe Illustrator.

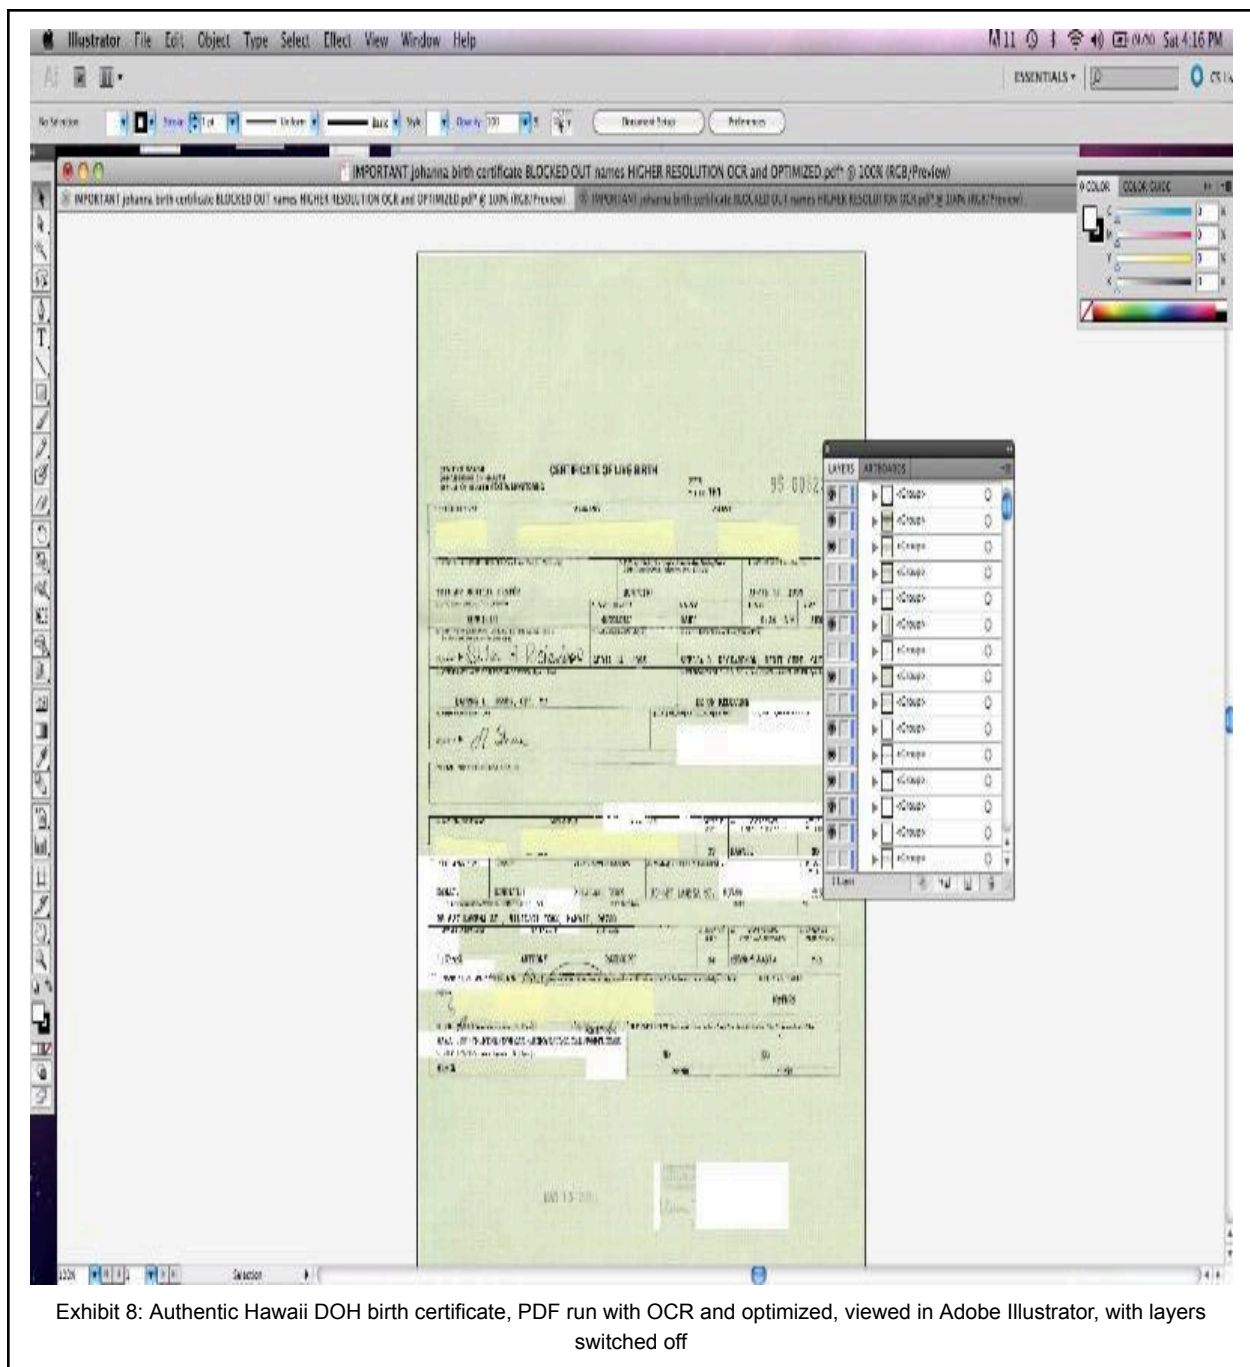

Exhibit 8: Authentic Hawaii DOH birth certificate, PDF run with OCR and optimized, viewed in Adobe Illustrator, with layers switched off Switching off layers in this document did not result in text that could be moved around, such as the registrar's date stamp and the registrar's text/signature stamp. As WND has reported, this is possible to do, however, with the Obama birth certificate PDF when viewed in Adobe Acrobat or in Adobe Illustrator.

Nor does switching off layers in this document permit a text level to be separated from the security background layer, as demonstrated in Exhibit 9.

HANDS ON, HOW TO, GRASSROOTS TRAINING

Do you want to do something about what is happening to your country but you don't really know what it is that you can do or how to go about it?

WHAT: The American Majority will be conducting a grassroots training session Training will center around critical subjects such as:

- *Voter Fraud and what you can do about it
- *How to get out the vote in your area
- *How to organize and micro-target your precinct
- *How to identify and influence a 'swing' voter to support your conservative candidate
- *Accountability and Transparency in Democracy and what you can do to make it happen

WHEN: Saturday, August 27 from 11:00am- 5:00pm.

WHERE: The training will be held at Roswell Street Baptist Church, Supply Building, located at 900 Roswell Street, Marietta, GA 30060 (2 blocks West of the Big Chicken and just to the left of the main church building)

COST: The registration fee of $25.00 per person includes lunch and training materials.

TO REGISTER: You can register online at <http://americanmajority.org/events/marietta-ga-activist-training/>

It is critical that you register THIS WEEK. PLEASE DON'T WAIT UNTIL ONE WEEK BEFORE.

The American Majority needs to order airline tickets A MONTH IN ADVANCE to keep their costs down and needs to have at least 70 attendees to pay their expenses .

TEA PARTY

YOU ARE HEREBY INSTRUCTED TO PAY
NO TAXES: PLANT, FARM, BUY AND TRADE FOOD TO AVOID PAYING SALES TAX.

AVOID ALL MAJOR PURCHASES, INCLUDING CLOTHING AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD ITEMS.

BUY AMERICAN-MADE PRODUCTS
ONLY, THOSE MADE BY NATIVE
AMERICANS, AMISH, OR LOCAL CHURCH
ORGANIZATIONS.

DO NOT TURN IN FEDERAL INCOME TAX AND GIVE AS MUCH TO CHARITY AS POSSIBLE.

STOCKPILE GOLD: NOW IS THE BEST TIME TO PAY OFF OLD DEBTS IN CASH, AS THE DOLLAR IS ONLY WORTH HALF.

REMEMBER THE GOVERNMENT IS FLAT
BROKE BECAUSE OBAMA WASTED $9 TRILLION IN LESS THAN 3YRS., SO THE GOVERNMENT HAS NO MONEY LEFT TO OPERATE BY 8-2-2011 OR CREDIT TO FINANCE ITS OPEARTION.

1/1/2011 - 9/11/2011 dress code applicable:

TEA PARTY COLORS ARE:

 PURPLE, FOR A BLENDING OF THE TWO PARTY'S POLICIES

OR

BLACK, FOR FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY TO KEEP OUR COUNTRY IN THE BLACK WITH RESPONSIBLE SPENDING

You, as a citizen of the United States, are cordially invited to join us in peaceful revolution, against the fiscal irresponsibility of the powers that be, to firmly remind them that we pay their bills, and that we're tired of having the interest of the majority shoved under the rug while our Congresspeople and Senators barter and trade votes to appease Obama in feigned bipartisanship in representing what his direction is for our country, instead of what we want as the majority! You are called upon by the good citizens of this country to exercise your rights to free speech and freedom of expression by joining us!

In keeping with the eclectic style of the Tea Party, please wear purple or black clothing and your maddest hat, now through the Spring: hats can be top hats, stylish winter hats, knitted hats, or ball caps with a black or purple ribbon on them. Any political T-shirt or message related clothing is encouraged and appropriate.

Resolve to meet once a week or more, form your own group, and discuss politics, because watching the Sunday morning political shows between 9-12 has gotten boring !!!!
