

Reminiscing of the happy days when you were here
I hear your voice call out my name so clear

Destiny would break us apart
Oh how I wanted to deny that
And never let go, though you soon would fade away from me

The moon recalls to that darkness
I pleaded, though it was hopeless
If only we could go back and smile forevermore

To live on in this world without you here
To live up to the light, can't shake my fear
Though time may pass me by, I still don't know why I can't move on from here

I never wanted you to say "goodbye"
But even so, for you to fade away
The tears overflow, drifting away into the night that calls me
If I could wake up from this dream,
I'd like to be with you again

You'd right there standing next to me, like in a dream
But when morning called, I'd see you're still gone, away from me

Whether I should lead them or pursue you, I just can't make up my mind
With my naivety
There was nothing I could do,
All of my hope, shattered by my very hands

The moon shines out in the darkness
I pleaded, though it was hopeless
If only we could go back and smile forevermore

The fear held in your face that fated day
The fear within my heart won't go away
It's all my fault you're gone, the guilt won't stop
I'm sorry, I went wrong

The words of parting can't be heard from here
So trust in me, I'll find you, for our sake
No matter who's my enemy, I would destroy them and cross worlds to reach you
The moon is shining ever bright
Let's reunite beneath its light

No matter what, I'll find a way to reach you
No matter what they say, I'll be there for you
Through the pain I feel, I'll cut it down for you
I'm running towards the truth

I would go on and fight to the end of time
Destroy the chains that bind me here
I'll find you, no matter what
Defying destiny

Just give me one more chance

To live on in this world without you here
To live up to the light, can't shake my fear
Won't time just please rewind, escape from the night

I can't live in a world without you here
Can't live up to the light, can't shake my fear
Though time may pass me by, I still don't know why I can't move on from here

I never wanted you to say "goodbye"
But even so, for you to fade away
The tears overflow, drifting away into the night that calls me
If I could wake up from this dream,
I'll fight on til we meet again
