Camp Hours and Camp Options

Understanding the importance of flexibility for families, Elite Fire Taekwondo provides various camp options to suit different schedules and needs. Our full-day summer camps are ideal for working parents, offering extended camp hours to ensure your child is cared for throughout the day. Each camp week is packed with exciting activities, ensuring children enjoy a fulfilling time at camp. Whether you're looking for themed camps or general day camp programs, we have something for every child.

For those seeking more specific experiences, we also offer choice camps tailored to unique interests, making our camps a standout in North Raleigh.

Camp Care and Camp Care Options

At Elite Fire Taekwondo, we prioritize your child's safety and well-being. Our camp care options are designed to provide a nurturing environment for children to thrive. Parents can rest assured knowing that their child at day camp is supervised by highly trained summer camp staff. With a low camper-to-staff ratio, we ensure that every child receives personalized attention and support.

For families needing additional care, our before- and after-camp care programs offer convenient solutions. These options extend camp hours to accommodate busy schedules, ensuring children have a safe and enjoyable space to learn, play, and grow.

Convenient Camp Location in North Raleigh

Conveniently located in North Raleigh, Elite Fire Taekwondo makes it easy for families across the region to participate in our exceptional summer programs. Our camp location is accessible and equipped with state-of-the-art facilities designed to enhance your child's experience. Whether you're a resident of North Raleigh or a neighboring area, our camps provide a convenient and reliable option for summer fun and learning.

Themed Camps and Kindergarten Camps

One of the highlights of Elite Fire Taekwondo's offerings is our variety of themed camps. Each week of summer camp focuses on a unique theme, keeping the experience fresh and exciting for participants. These themes are designed to spark creativity, build new skills, and encourage teamwork among campers.

For younger children, our kindergarten camps are the perfect introduction to structured activities in a supportive environment. These programs are tailored to meet the developmental needs of younger campers, ensuring they have an age-appropriate and enjoyable experience.
