

Ten Most Bipartisan Currently Serving Republican US House Members*

Brian Fitzpatrick (PA-01) <https://fitzpatrick.house.gov/email>
Don Bacon (NE-02) <https://bacon.house.gov/contact/>
Kim Young (CA-40) <https://youngkim.house.gov/contact>
Gus Bilirakis (FL-12) <https://bilirakis.house.gov/contact>
Chris Smith (NJ-04) <https://chrissmith.house.gov/contact/zipauth.htm>
David Joyce (OH-14) <https://joyce.house.gov/contact>
Vern Buchanan (FL-16) <https://buchanan.house.gov/email-me>
Mark Amodei (NV-2) <https://amodei.house.gov/email-me>
Maria Elvira Salazar (FL-27) <https://salazar.house.gov/contact>
Michael McCaul (TX-10) <https://mccaul.house.gov/contact>

*As defined by the Lugar Center, as of 2021, these currently serving House Republicans have the highest frequency of co-sponsoring bills introduced by Democrats. Source: <https://www.thelugarcenter.org/ourwork-Bipartisan-Index.html>