

Bake Sale [Fall 25]

Note: this 1-pager formats more nicely on a laptop! Please contact me if you have any questions or trouble reading it.

Bake Sale!

Fall is the perfect time for baking—and mutual aid. I'll be doing a bake sale to raise funds for community member Lana, who is currently in and out of the hospital for her heart condition.

How This Works

1. I'll post on my Instagram stories whenever I have a baking weekend coming up, and the recipe I plan to make.
2. Message me about what you'd like! You can also email.
3. Donate to Lana's fundraiser, and send me a screenshot of your receipt. Suggested donation of $20 per order.
4. We can coordinate getting your order to you!

Some Favorites

- Ginger Cookies
- Apple Cake
- Muffins
- Banana Bread

About Lana

Lana Hateem is a 17-year-old artist, student, daughter, and sister. She lives with her family and their cat in central Gaza, all of whom have been living under siege for the past two years.

Lana has a heart condition and needs pacemaker replacement surgery. All funds raised will go to her medical care, as well as to help the family buy food, medicine, and other basic needs.

More information about Lana and our support team is available on her fundraising page, which has been certified by the international mutual aid collective Bees and Watermelons.

Plant Sale [Archived - Spring 25]

Note: this sale is archived from May 2025! Please view this tab for current information.

🌱 Plant Sale 🌱

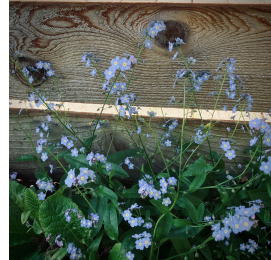

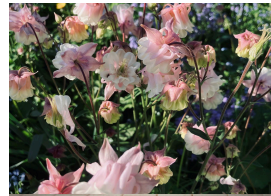

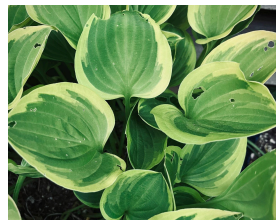

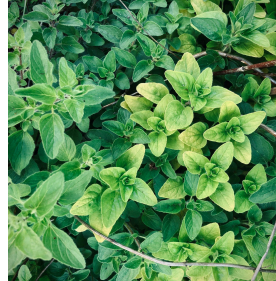

Spring has sprung and it's time for mutual aid! Throughout this month, I'll be selling plant starts from my garden as part of an ongoing fundraiser for community member Lana and her family.

Options

- Lemon Balm
- Oregano
- Raspberries
- Forget-Me-Not
- Columbine
- Hostas

Steps

1. Message me about what plants you'd like! Instagram DMs or email work well.
2. Donate to Lana's fundraiser, and send me a screenshot of your receipt. Suggested donation of $10 per plant.
3. We can coordinate getting your plants to you—I'm in West Seattle.
