

Massachusetts Jobs with Justice is a coalition of community, faith, and labor groups in Massachusetts organizing working people and allies to fight for the rights of all workers: locally, nationally, and internationally.

Massachusetts Workers Emergency Relief Funds

*As of August 9, 2020 we have paused on updating this document since distribution of many of these funds has slowed down or stopped. If you have any new funds to add or updates to share about funds already on this list, please email jwj@massjwj.net.

Compiled by Massachusetts Jobs with Justice for workers affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Workers should apply for these funds regardless of immigration status. Please research, apply, and share. This is a work in progress! If you find new funds, please let us know! And please reach out if you would like to volunteer to help workers, particularly ones who are not fluent in English or need help with technology, jwj@massjwj.net.
