Jeremiah 31:7-14

⁷ For thus says the LORD:
Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
'Save, O LORD, your people,
the remnant of Israel.'

See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labour, together; a great company, they shall return here.

⁹ With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back,

I will let them walk
by brooks of water,
in a straight path
in which they shall not stumble;

for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; say,
'He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd a flock.'

¹¹ For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

on the height of Zion,
and they shall be radiant
over the goodness of the Lord,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;

their life shall become like a watered garden, and they shall never languish again.

¹³ Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry.

I will turn their mourning into joy,
I will comfort them,
and give them gladness for sorrow.

¹⁴ I will give the priests their fill of fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the LORD.

Ephesians 1:3-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, > ⁴just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love.

⁵He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,

⁶to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

⁷In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace 8that he lavished on us.

With all wisdom and insight

he has made known to us
the mystery of his will,
according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ,

10 as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will,

who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory.

¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit;

> of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

John 1:1-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

²He was in the beginning with God.

³All things came into being through him,

and without him not one thing came into being.

What has come into being fin him was life, and the life was the light of all people.

⁵The light shines in the darkness,

and the darkness did not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him.

> ⁸He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light.

⁹The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through him;

yet the world did not know him.

¹¹He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him.

¹²But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵(John testified to him and cried out,

'This was he of whom I said,

"He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me." ')

¹⁶From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

¹⁷The law indeed was given through Moses;

grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

¹⁸No one has ever seen God.

It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

Reding the Prophet This Week

I confess I've only preached verses 31-34 from this chapter 31 in recent years

I did post audio of the whole book in 2022 – Here's the whole of chapter 31:

> It's an eloquent song of a remnant's return Jeremiah may have been ready to dream, Even before exile, of this remnant return Have we in the sideline church 'got it' yet?

Reading the Epistle This Week

I tend to lump Ephesians with last week's Colossians, Post-Paul cosmic frameworks and hierarchies Inextricable here from modern 'blood atonement' talk

I last made that case in 2023:

Reading the Gospel This Week

On this 12th day of Christmas, A rare second Christmas Sunday before Epiphany, We're offered John 1, if we missed it in this Luke year

Search my sermon notes for 'John 1' and you get 18 sermons in this century But rarely adjacent to Epiphany like this

From Jan 6, 2002 I indulged in some post-modern stuff http://www.billbrucewords.com/2002/01/seeing-word-dwellingamong-us.html

In 2021, relating Ephesians on Jan 3: http://www.billbrucewords.com/2021/01/do-you-see-what-i-see
